To The Editor:

On January 23rd Bailey Sandra Erb was moved from the intensive care unit (PICU) at I.W.K. and is now being cared for by her mother (Vanessa) in a special unit, under the supervision of many nurses. What a day for Vanessa, Darren and Bailey! Although big brother, 3 year old Braeden doesn't understand all that is happening, he does know that he has a baby sister whom he loves beyond measure. His smile says it all when he sees Bailey.

As the great grandmother of Bailey I would like to take this opportunity to bring to light what has transpired in the past few months.

In September 2011, Vanessa and Darren discovered via ultra-sound that their unborn baby would enter this world with a critical heart defect and the emotional roller coaster ride began. Family, friends and members of the community rallied around them. There were donations to help with expenses as Vanessa and Darren travelled to I.W.K. for extensive tests and ultra-sounds that could not be done in Moncton. After two such trips, the results were in, and everyone directly involved were devastated. We were brought to a place that most of us had never been.

But we were about to get our first miracle. In early November we held a yard sale, it was a cold day but warm hearts conquered the weather – the yard sale was supported with many donations of articles to be sold and in a period of five hours we raised $500.00. Vanessa and I cried! The goodness and generosity of all of those who attended was so overwhelming. I still cry when I think of that day. On the 12th of November we received our second miracle- a benefit was held at the Petitcodiac Branch Royal Canadian Legion – it was our first experience and what we learned would take a book to tell it all- there was such an out pouring of love and compassion that there isn't enough words to express our appreciation, our very lives were changed, because of what others did for us, we are so very aware of the needs of so many others.

Vanessa entered I.W.K. on November 24th to await the arrival of Bailey, she wasn't expected until December 14th but she wanted to see her new world and at 1:13am on December 03rd she made her grand entrance, weighing in at 7lbs. 2oz.. She became the main focus of Dr. O'Blenis and his team as they prepared for an extreme heart re-construction. Her surgery was postponed twice due to the fact that Dr. O'Blenis was in consultation with other heart surgeons in North America. His dedication and skill are second to none and all of the preparation paid off. On December 13th the team gave us another miracle. Of course, over the minutes, hours and days following there were more gut wrenching, heart breaking times. But Bailey was determined to stay on this earth - the love and dedication of Vanessa and Darren as they stood by her side through some very dark times has been rewarded by all of heaven. Bailey was an open chest recovery patient for several days, the closure was successful and another hurdle was jumped – she continued to recover and was a 5 Star baby in the unit! The expert care given her by doctors and nurses in PICU was phenomenal. From December 13th until the week-end of January 14th, Bailey was medically immobilized, intravenously sustained with minerals and nutrients, A feeding tube was put in place on January 13th and she received her first real post-op meal – skimmed breast milk. On the advice of the cardiac specialist she was up graded to “real” breast milk on the 18th of January and now she is down to the business of moving and eating. Little Bailey “Brave Heart” Erb has started (in small ways) her journey of coming home. What a celebration that will be!

I cannot tell this story without mentioning Ronald McDonald family room – volunteers are on duty 12 hours a day making cookies, answering the phones, giving directions and doing what they do best: making sure that those who need their services are treated royally.

As I wrap up my writing I would like to say “thank-you and “God bless you” to each and everyone who gave from the heart. I am so proud to live in the Village of Petitcodiac and just as proud to be associated with the areas surrounding this generous community, our businesses may find that they need to close early and homes locked at night but the heart of this community stays open 24-7.

As we reflect on the past year and enter 2012, the world economy continues to face serious economic challenges. As countries around the world fight growing debts and deficits, Canada is leading the way in economic growth and creating jobs. Through our world class banking system and the economic stimulus we provided through the Economic Action Plan, we have the strongest job creation record in the G7 with nearly 600,000 net new jobs created since July 2009. Since we formed government in 2006, the Canadian economy has created over 1.1 million new jobs with an unemployment rate lower than the United States for the first time in three decades. Our government is making targeted investments that will help Canadian businesses create good paying jobs for Canadians.

Recently, Forbes magazine ranked Canada as the best place in the world for businesses to grow and create jobs. The International Monetary Fund (IMF) is forecasting Canada's economy will be among the strongest in the G-7 this year and next. Also, for the fourth consecutive year, the World Economic Forum has ranked Canada's banks as the soundest in the world. These are significant achievements for Canada for which all Canadians can be proud.

In order to keep our economy strong and create jobs, our government will keep taxes low, reduce red tape and promote Canada's brand as the best place in the world to do business. With the success of the economic stimulus, our government is introducing phase two of our Economic Action Plan. Building on the success of targeted investments like the Tax Fairness Plan that allowed for income splitting for seniors, the Pension Income Credit, the Canada Child Tax Credit, and the Home Renovation Tax Credit, we are introducing new investments to maintain our economic advantage. Our government has introduced a Hiring Credit for Small Businesses to help create jobs, a Family Caregiver Tax Credit, a Volunteer Firefighters Tax Credit and we have extended the ecoEnergy Retrofit Home Program that will help homeowners make their homes more energy efficient.

Our government will continue to support Canada's economy through significant investments that will have a positive impact on Canadians and that will deliver real results for Canadian families.

As we enter the New Year, I would like to wish all Fundy Royal constituents all the best in 2012.

Hon. Rob Moore, P.C, M.P

From The Editor:

The month of January has been very busy here at the Hall, with meetings and special parties. Thanks to everyone.

The months of February and March are looking just as busy. If you are wishing to book for an occasion you need to book early in order to be sure of your date.

Congratulations to Jarrett Crossman and Team Canada for winning the Bronze medal.

The story about the Forest Glen Bridge had the wrong date, 1950 should have been 1957-58. Thanks to all who helped to make the correction.

We are really looking forward to the Diamond Ring Dinner on February 24th and the Wedding/Prom Expo Gala February 25th. There are only 100 tickets for the dinner, so don't hesitate.

P.S Hope you are all still keeping your New Years Resolutions!

The members of the Petitcodiac Iota Master Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi held their ticket draw for the Christmas Boxes at the Dec 1st meeting. Winners were Aaron Stevenson and Calvin Hicks. The boxes, which were filled with festive baked items, were assembled at the December 15th meeting and delivered to the winners next day. JMA Student Exchange

Recently a community /school group that we started about 2 years ago called New Directions was re-energized when we attended a conference in Fredericton on Youth Engagement ( how to get involved and step up in your community) As a result we applied for a YMCA Youth Canada Exchange. Much to our surprise we were accepted soon after.

Now we have 15 students ( from grades 9-12) and 2 adults who will be going to Midland, Ontario from May 31, 2012 to June 7, 2012 . Our twin group will visit us from May 2, 2012 to May 9, 2012 .These students will be staying with host families in our area. It has been many years since we had a student exchange with students from Salisbury.

The Government of Canada, through YMCA Youth Exchanges Canada Program, pays for the travel costs of all eligible participants and organizers. However, our group needs to raise about $ 4000 to pay for the activities & travel that all 34 people will be involved in when they arrive in Salisbury.

This past weekend students started their fundraising efforts at the monthly Lions Club Pancake Breakfasts by selling ducks for the Great Duck Race to be held at the end of April. Ducks are $5 a piece. Prizes will be awarded to first three ducks that cross the finish line in the Petitcodiac River, at Highland Park. The prizes are gift certificates: First Place $150 at Marks Work

Warehouse, Second Place $100 Gas Voucher and Third Place $75 at the Future Shop. Ducks will be in local stores soon so watch for them. In addition students will be holding bake sales and a movie night in February to continue their efforts to raise funds.

At YMCA Youth Exchanges Canada, the goal is to give youth groups the opportunity to learn more about other communities across Canada. In the process, participants learn new skills, develop a stronger sense of community, and get a chance to experience Canada's diversity firsthand. All 34 participants will be volunteering in the communities of Midland and Salisbury in an effort to give back to their communities during their stay.

Elgin W.I. Learns About Cake Decorating

The January Meeting of the Elgin W.I. was held at the Elgin Senior's Citizen Hall with Hazelanna Carter presiding. Ladies were asked to sign a guest book. 10 members and 9 guests were present. Meeting opened in usual manner. Winner of the Christmas Mystery Basket was Colleen Bannister of Goshen, New Brunswick. Two games were enjoyed. Committees were set up for up coming Catering events. International Women's Day will be held March 10th, 2012 at the Elgin Community Center. Everyone Welcome. Alice Crandall had the program for the month and introduced Susan Briand who showed the group how to decorate a cake. This was really interesting. Alice presented the cake to Elsie Steeves for her up and coming Birthday. Following the meeting the ladies had a social time.

7 Tips for Feeding and Housing your Betta Fish

If you've ever taken into consideration keeping Betta Fish but have been completely put off by the guidelines for their care that some pet store owners and breeders will give you, then think again. Once you've got their tank set up keeping Betta Fish is a breeze, and needs only a little time every day, and a general clean once a week. Here are 7 tips to get you started.

1. Get a decent sized tank which could easily house a minimum of two fish: The basis for this is that the Betta Fish is going to be happier in a larger space and you could also consider breeding Betta Fish pairs if you are used to cleaning and looking after a large sized tank.
2. If you have two male Betta Fish, and only the one tank, use a plastic divider with small holes in to split the larger tank into two halves. You might use living plants, or ornaments to halt the fish seeing one another and they will both be very happy in their own individual little territory
3. Put fresh water snails in the tank: Fresh water snails are remarkable given that the Betta Fish really don't mind them sharing their tank space and snails survive a lot of the algae and waste material Betta Fish leave behind. However examine the tank carefully if you find you've got a sudden influx of snails in your tank - there asexual so do not require a partner to mate, when their feeding conditions are ideal for them they may reproduce - meaning you have a dirty tank.
4. Don't put your Betta Fish tank near a stereo, or television, particularly if you like the volume turned up loud - Fighting Fish are susceptible to stress from the vibrations sound causes in the

5. Don't put your Betta Fish tank under any sunlight. Sunlight promotes the increase of algae within the water which can be harmful to the Betta Fish if not cleaned out. Try and set your tank within a neutral area that is neither too sunny nor too dark and preferably a space which has a natural light cycle.
6. Don't overfeed your Betta Fish. You can use freeze dried foods should you prefer (instead of live food) but only put enough on the surface of the tank so that your fish can feed for as much as 2 minutes or so. Fish need not eat much whatsoever, so as soon as they have stopped eating, clean the debris out of your tank right away.
7. Don't use food blocks to feed your fish in case you are away from home for a few days. Betta Fish can go up to ten days without food, so if you are only going away for several days then they will be fine with no additional food whatsoever. If you are heading away for any longer period of time then you'll have to get somebody to come in a minimum of every second day to check the chemical levels within the tank water and to feed the Fighting Fish.

These 7 tips on how to feed and house your Betta Fish could save you time in regularly cleaning a dirty tank, and money that you could possibly spend overfeeding your fish. Remember they can make marvellous pets but knowing a couple of little tips on how to keep their tank clean and healthy for your Betta Fish will go a long way towards your success with them.

Comedy at Large

by Laurie Blanchard
Salisbury, NB

Back in the 90's, a monthly paper named "The Sentinel" circulated in this area. The publisher was the late David Singer who also produced a newspaper in the Riverview area titled "The Country Chronicle". For the Sentinel paper, I was the advertising co-ordinator and wrote the comedy column. David was a very intelligent man and I enjoyed working with him. David, having lived in England at one time, had a bit of a British accent and some interesting figures of speech. Amongst the many expressions he had, one stood out, as he used it often. He was a busy man and there were times I would be speaking to him on the telephone discussing advertising and editorials for an upcoming issue. Near the end of our conversation, he would say -- I believe we've covered everything Laurie, therefore, I must PRESS ON ! We'll talk again. He was always busy and was always pressing on! I was under the impression he worked for a drycleaner. On one occasion, he called me to arrange a meeting at small local restaurant to go over the material and ads I had gathered for the upcoming issue of the Sentinel. We had coffee and donuts and pretty well covered everything. As we stepped outside, he thanked me for my work in the solicitation of the advertising and said " I must head back to my office at once. Keep in touch. Bye for now. When he got to his vehicle, he turned back and said "We didn't forget anything did we Laurie?" Now the plot thickens. Before I left home, I had put an old steam iron in the back seat of my car to help me play with words. I looked back at him and said --- Oh yes, David, there was one thing I overlooked. Yes, yes, he said, and what was it? I opened the door, reached in and took out the iron, raising it above my head and said -- David, I must press on !! Well the look on his face said it all. He said -- Go away! Go away! You're going to drive me to drinking. That moment made me realize how much I enjoyed playing with words. The next time we met he said -- Don't you dare dig out that iron! And I didn't, thinking he might get steamed. Oh dear, once a punster, always a punster.

S.A.C. Healing Therapy (Spiritual Alignment Connection Healing)

This is an extremely powerful FIVE part energy healing therapy. This involves the practitioner using their hands to focus their attention on bringing balance into the chakra system of the client. The practitioner uses

A series of different moves to clear blockages and energy cysts within the chakra system and auric field of the client. This facilitates healing on all levels: physically, mentally, emotionally and spiritually. In many cases emotional blockages are considerably reduced. This therapy assists in the reduction of neck, back and leg pain. People who have experienced this healing therapy report increased levels of self esteem, self confidence and inner peace.

The S.A.C. (The Spiritual Alignment Connection) works on stimulating DNA strands and meridians points through out the body. The meridians are tangible pathways that carry life force energy into and out of the body. Every organ and physiological system: lymphatic, endocrine, central nervous system, reproductive, skeletal, digestive, circulatory is served by at least one major meridian, and every cell of the body is accessible via the intricate pathway of meridians. The meridian system is the 'energy bloodstream' that brings vitality, balance, and cellular regeneration to every part of the body. This allows the practitioner to charge the meridian which in turn balances the physical organ. This is a great way to keep all of systems charged and working at full charge.

GARBAGE COLLECTION A new garbage collector, Miller Waste, has been awarded the tender for garbage collection. You may notice a few changes, please be patient with them as they familiarize themselves with the area. Remember, Salisbury is Wet/Dry Mandatory Source Separating and only blue and greentransparent bags will be collected.

PROTECTING THE PUBLIC WASTEWATER COLLECTION SYSTEM Fats, oils and grease (FOG) disposed of through sinks and toilets sticks to the inside of sewer pipes, restricting flow and possibly resulting in sewer backups. In addition, high levels of FOG may decrease the performance of our pump stations and wastewater treatment plant. Also, non biodegradable items such as diapers, dental floss, baby wipes and feminine hygiene products should not be disposed of through drains or toilets. After time these items turn into a grayish pulp which can wrap around pumps and equipment, requiring crews to respond both during and after hours to remedy the problem. Ultimately, these issues impact the end user through increased operating and maintenance costs.

Valentine's Day

Valentine for Grandma, A
by: Joseph Walker, , Heartwarmers4u

It was just a harmless prank, that's all it was.

And it wasn't as if Old Lady Hayes didn't deserve it. The way she used to scream at us for "borrowing" a few of her precious raspberries each summer, like we were stealing gold out of Fort Knox... well, she had it coming.

At least, that's the way we saw it as George finished tying the string to the red, heart-shaped box. We giggled as Ron added the final touch: two plastic red roses, glued to the lid. "I wonder what will surprise her most," I asked as George practiced jerking the box out of reach by yanking on the string. "Seeing a box of candy on her step, or watching it fly away when she tries to pick it up?"

We laughed as we watched George make Albert chase the box around the garage. For a chubby 10-year-old, Albert did a good imitation of Mrs. Hayes's hunched hobble and her seemingly permanent scowl. And we howled when he picked up a broom and pretended to ride it through the midwinter air while shouting, "I'm Old Lady Hayes, the driedest-up old prune in the West!"

Ron was first to notice my dad in the doorway. Within seconds, Ron's anxiety was shared by all but Albert, who continued to swoop around the garage until he came face-to-belt-buckle with our silent observer. For a moment the only movement in the room came from the little puffs of steam escaping our mouths. Dad broke the stillness by walking slowly to the empty candy box lying on the floor. He picked it up and dangled it by the string, watching it swing back and forth. Then he looked into the eyes of the frightened boys. And, as was his custom, he looked into their hearts as well.

"It doesn't seem so long ago that I was pulling Valentine's Day pranks," he said as he laid the box on a workbench. "One year my cousins and I decided to pull one on our Grandma Walker even though we loved her -- she was the sweetest grandma a boy could have. We were just feeling devilish and decided to have some fun at her expense.

"Early in the evening we snuck up to her doorstep with a can of red paint.

Grandma was hard of hearing, so we didn't have to worry about being very quiet. Which was a good thing, because every time we thought about how funny it was going to be to see Grandma try to pick up a valentine that was just painted on her doorstep, we couldn't keep from laughing.

"It didn't take long, and it wasn't very artistic. But for an old woman with bad eyes, it would do. We kicked the door and hid behind bushes. When Grandma finally appeared she stood in the doorway, her gray hair pulled back tightly into her usual bun, wiping her hands on her usual apron. She must have heard the commotion in the bushes because she looked in our direction and spoke loudly enough for us to hear: 'Who could be knocking at my door?' Then she looked down. Even from 15 feet away we could see the joy in her eyes when she spotted a splash of red at her feet.

"A valentine for Grandma!' she exclaimed. 'And I thought I'd be forgotten again this year!'

"She tried to retrieve her prize. This was the moment we had been waiting for, but somehow it wasn't as much fun as we expected. Grandma groped at the fresh paint for a moment. Slowly, she figured out our prank. She tried to smile. Then, with as much dignity as she could muster, she turned and walked back into her house, absently wiping red paint on her clean, white apron."

Dad paused, and for the first time I noticed that his eyes were moist. He took a deep breath. "Grandma died later that year," he said. "I never had another chance to give her a real valentine."

He took the box from the bench and handed it to me. Then he turned and left the garage.

Later that night a red, heart-shaped box with two plastic roses on it was placed on Mrs. Hayes's front doorstep by six giggling boys. We hid behind snow-covered bushes to see how she would react to receiving a full pound of candy and nuts.

With no strings attached.

THE BRIDGES

After much interest, opinions and research this is what I have found out – There has been at least 3 bridges over the Pollett River at Forest Glen, the first one that I have learned about was a covered bridge built around 1862. That bridge was replaced by another covered bridge in 1906. In 1957-58 the open structure bridge was built, that is the bridge they are taking away to be replaced by a Bailey Bridge 2012.

EARL & JEAN CHAPMAN
Antique
Inducted November 15, 2008

The Chapman's, Earl and Jean were about the best known and respected family listed in the NB Antique Auto Club. Their Charter Member number was 25.

Earl and Jean had been most active from the very start and never missed participating in a provincial show or tour, and were faithful to many other tours, shows or week-end outings, both in their own South-east Region and other regional events. It's doubted that any other club members could top the Chapman's' record of participation.

Their collection of cars started in 1948, the year Earl and Jean were married. The first car was a 1929 Willys Coupe. Others that followed were a 1926 Chev Sedan, 1927 Model T Tudor Coach, 1928 Chev Sedan and a 1930 Model A Ford Coupe. The 1930 Coupe was the car they took on a tour to Edmondson to meet the EXPO antiquers coming east. They also used it in the big 1967 Centennial Parade in Fredericton.

They sold the Ford for a 1936 Plymouth. Next was a 1930 Dodge that they took on the Texaco Tour in 1968 around New Brunswick. They also used it on the 1970 Cape Breton tour with a tent trailer and their four small children - Phyllis, Florence, Doug and Danny.

Then there was the 1936 Chevrolet Sedan and a 1942 Plymouth Coupe.

In 1975 they did the seven week cross Canada Coast to Coast tour with a 1932 Chev Coach with a 16 foot Sprite trailer with their son Steven.

In 1978 they began driving a 1948 Plymouth Sedan. They drove this car to Ontario where four or five New Brunswick antiquer families took the Normoska Tour. On the return trip through Bangor, Maine they found a real nice 1940 Chevrolet Special deluxe Coupe for sale and they bought it on the spot. It was the mainstay of the fleet and over the years was in countless tours and shows.

Like most antiquers, Earl owned and restored a number of other cars, which included a 1920 Model T Doctor's Coupe and a 1920 Model T Run-about. Another was a real sharp 1931 Model A Ford that had side mounts and trunk.

Earls mechanic certificate number was 828.

The club was most fortunate to have Earl and Jean as members.

Jean and her son Steven accepted the award.

Jarrett Crossman is back from an experience of a lifetime, where he had the opportunity to play for the Canadian Youth Hockey Team in the 1st Youth Olympics held in Innsbruck, Austria. His team consists of 15 players and 2 goalies; coaches were Curtis Hunt from Calgary and Jim Hulton from Ontario.

The Canadian team played a total of 6 games in the tournament and won 4. There were five teams: Canada, Finland, Russia, USA and Austria. The rink they played on was called Tyrolean Ice Arena and it's an Olympic size rink.

While playing in the tournament Jarrett had two assists. In the Semi finals they lost to Finland 2-1, which then Finland played Russia and won 2-1 in a shoot out making Finland the gold medalist. Canada then played against the USA, during this game the Canadian team beat USA 7-5 leading them to win the bronze medal for Canada at this game there was about 4000 fans there.

One of Jarrett's most memorable memories is when he took his first step onto the ice wearing the maple leaf, he said it felt pretty awesome to be there and play in front of all the fans. Over all his experience was phenomenal everything was very well organized right down to the meals, transportation and activities that were scheduled. He made lots of long lasting friendships and memories. Team Canada gave him two sets of jerseys and Hockey Canada gave him an 11-piece apparel set.

Whether it's the bronze medal or not it is still an Olympic medal and a great accomplishment at that. Congratulations Jarrett.

"Congratulations to Jarrett Crossman on his selection to the Youth Olympic Hockey Team which is travelling to Innsbruck, Austria. The executive of The Codiac Classics Car Club presented him with a cheque to help with his expenses."
