RICK'S RANT "BABY ON BOARD"

The snow had been falling all day. The temperature was hovering just below freezing. She didn't realize there was "black ice" and now the car was sliding backwards, at full speed, into the ditch, flipping twice before coming to rest upside down in the bushes..... The older driver behind saw everything and immediately called "911". Those 7 minutes it took the First Responders to arrive seemed like hours. The seat-belted driver was unconscious... the elderly couple saw the "Baby on Board" sign in what was left of the rear window and started searching through the deep snow.... listening periodically for wimpers or crying. Other people arrived on scene, and they to assisted in the search.

The First Responders found the driver to be in good shape considering the crash, but she was not fully conscious yet. And after 14 minutes, there was no sign of the missing baby.... Why? There wasn't one!!!! The driver put the "Baby on Board" sign in the back window when she came home from the hospital, and it was still there 2 years later..... Her baby was sleeping at home in her own bed!!!! Can you imagine yourself searching frantically in the waist-deep snow and alder bushes for that missing baby, heart pounding, and to no avail?

"Baby on Board" signs first appeared in Europe in the late seventies, early eighties. The Bradleys, a couple from Medford, Mass. saw them during a trip to Italy. After hearing the story of a child ejected during a local crash, and not found until hours later when the driver regained consciousness and asked for her child, they decided to market them in the US. In 1984, "Safety 1st Corporation" bought the Bradleys' company, and started printing and distributing the 8" square yellow signs. In 1985-86, "Canadian Tire" ordered them for all the Canadian stores. Many provinces even changed Motor Vehicle regulations to allow them to be placed in vehicle windows.

By warning First Responders that they should be looking for another victim, and possibly saving another life, they are invaluable. But carelessly leaving them hanging in a vehicle's window when no "baby" is present, is as irresponsible as driving without a seatbelt!!! The emotional toll placed on First Responders, the public, and anyone else dealing with a car-crash is bad enough. It doesn't need to be made greater by a useless "Baby on Board" sign hung thoughtlessly in the back window. Please use only when there is really a "Baby on Board"!Rick

NFU IN NB SAYS LOCAL AGRICULTURE NEEDS MORE PROVINCIAL SUPPORT

The National Farmers Union in New Brunswick (NFU in NB) recently launched its Local Food, Local Farms Campaign by planting an apple tree in Fredericton at the Provincial Legislature. On April 18th, a group of farmers and local food advocates gathered to draw attention to initiative, which highlights the importance of products grown and produced in the province of New Brunswick.

"Farmers in New Brunswick receive minimal assistance compared to other provinces, yet we are forced to compete in the same markets. This leaves little room for the small family farm in NB agriculture," says NFU in NB President Jean-Eudes Chiasson.

Encouraged by global momentum of the local food movement, the NFU in NB points out that the provincial government has a role to play as well. Mel Jellett, Executive Director of the NFU in NB, explains, "We would be remiss to say that the money allotted to agriculture in the annual budget is not important. But what is even more important is the lack of political will in this province to support procurement policies that encourage local farmers."

Citizens of New Brunswick deserve to have access to safe, quality food, grown and produced in the province. Members of the Union drew attention to this by planting a variety of apple trees developed by F.P Sharp in Upper Woodstock over a century ago. In 1848, at the age of 26, Sharp opened the first commercial nursery in New Brunswick, and the New Brunswicker apple variety was perhaps his most successful, as it was planted in almost every homestead orchard throughout the province. The tree has since been removed from legislative grounds. NFU farm members feel that this is further indicative of the need for farmer and citizen groups to demand access to a healthy, agricultural system in the province.

The National Farmers Union in New Brunswick is one of two accredited general farm organizations in the province. The NFU has represented farm families in all agricultural commodities across Canada for over forty years. This summer, the NFU's Local Food, Local Farms Campaign will be hitting the road, visiting farms and markets across the province.

For more information us by email nfu.nb.office@gmail.com, by telephone (506) 538-1189, or call the NFU in NB toll free at 1 (888) 246 5583

SEPARATION ANXIETY IN DOGS

Separation anxiety is one of the most common behavior problems seen in older dogs. A dog who has separation anxiety will become very anxious when he senses his owner is about to leave.

When the owner does leave, the dog often becomes destructive, barks or howls, may urinate or defecate, and may salivate profusely. A dog with separation anxiety will often be overly exuberant when his owner returns.

Older dogs may have a decreased ability to cope with changes in routine. Vision or hearing loss may make them more anxious, overall, but especially when they are separated from the owner. Neurologic changes may also limit an older dog's ability to adjust to change.

Some of the main considerations in treating separation anxiety are:

Do not make a big deal about leaving or coming home - that simply reinforces the behavior.

Teach your dog to relax. If your dog can learn to relax in a 'stay' for extended periods while you are there, he will be more likely to learn how to relax while you are gone.

Change your departure cues. Many dogs know as soon as the alarm goes off, that it is a work day and you are going to leave. They start getting anxious as soon as they hear the alarm. We need to change our routine so the dog does not know we will be leaving. For instance, pick up the car keys and then go sit on the couch; on a Saturday, get up and dress like you are going to work, but stay home.

Start with very short departures. Determine how long you can leave your dog before he gets anxious. It may be only 10 seconds, so start there. Leave for 5 seconds, return, and if the dog has remained calm, reward him. Gradually increase the time you are gone, always returning before the dog becomes anxious, and rewarding him for staying calm. This may take weeks to months, so patience is the key.

Associate your departure with something good. As you leave, give your dog a hollow toy such as a 'Kong' filled with a wonderful treat. This may take his mind off of you leaving. Anxiety tends to feed on itself, so if we can prevent the anxiety from occurring when you leave, the dog may remain calm after you leave. Make sure your dog's environment is comfortable: the right temperature, a soft bed, sunlight, 'easy-listening' music. Some dogs will be more relaxed if they can see the outside world, others may become more anxious. Similarly, some older dogs are more anxious when left outdoors, and do much better when they can stay in the house. Determine what is best for your dog.

Break up the dog's day. If you are gone for extended periods during the day, you may want to think about having someone come in during the day to let your dog out and give him some exercise. Older dogs, especially, may need to go outside more often to urinate and defecate. Giving them this opportunity may decrease their anxiety.

Crate your dog. Many dogs feel safe in a crate, and being in a crate will help reduce their destructiveness. This will make it safer for them and your house.

Use a team approach. Anti-anxiety medications such as Clomicalm are often needed to break the cycle of separation anxiety. Medication alone, however, will not solve the problem. Work with your veterinarian and an animal behaviorist to develop a plan that will work best for you and your dog.

The Gambler

A man on his way to the harness racing track felt that this was his lucky day. Number 5 just seemed to jump out at him.

Today was his 55th birthday. It was the 5th day of the 5th month and he was planning on retiring in 5 years. He and his wife lived at 555 Elm Street and by golly, their home was the 5th house down from the top of the street! Now, to top it all off, he checked his cell phone and hey, there were 5, yes 5 missed calls!

Well geez Louise, number 5 had to be the magic number, so he went to work and bet $ 500.00 on horse number 5, and wouldn't you know it, the darn thing came in 5th!

The CEO of Acme Toothpick Company was at the annual stockholders meeting... Ladies, gentlemen, I'm afraid that dividends will be significantly lower than anticipated this year. As you know, the economy has taken a downturn but most important of all ...This is the year we had to buy the log.

A fella went to visit a military museum. In the main lobby, he saw a statue of an army general in a most unusual position. It was all bent over, broke open like a 12 gauge shotgun! He asked the curator why this statue was in such a position. The reply cameWell sir, once we paid the sculptor for his work, we had no money left to put a horse under it!

Thought for the day : If an athlete gets athlete's foot, would an astronaut get mistletoe ?

BATTLE OF THE ATLANTIC

The Battle of the North Atlantic was the longest battle of the Second World War and possibly the most decisive of the conflict. It was also a battle in which Canada was not only one of the main combatants but it stretched deep into Canadian territory and impacted the homeland directly.

After Britain's European allies had fallen to the power of Germany's Blitzkrieg, the island nation was reduced to dependence upon the sea lanes which reached around the world to its empire supporters and to neutral countries such as the U.S. which were essential to England's survival.

Germany's First World War strategy of using U-Boats to cut Britain off from these lifelines was improved and extended when the war did not come to Hitler's expected quick end after the fall of France. The battle began explosively with the sinking of allied shipping by the U-boats and the hunting of those U-boats by allied war ships.

In September of 1939 as war broke out, the Canadian Navy had only 13 ships with 1,819 sailors. The Canadian navy was expanded quickly and training of the naval personnel stepped up to meet unquenchable demands. By December 1941 the Canadian Navy had more than 27,000 sailors in service in the North Atlantic. The German U-boats were quickly sinking allied ships and in the first year of this battle, over 1000 merchant ships were sunk by German U-boats. This was to be a battle marked by scientific advances. Both sides vied with one another to gain an edge in this gigantic struggle. From radar, to better ships to better electric batteries on the U-boats, to the breaking of the German code, it was a seesaw contest. When the U.S. entered the war in December of 1941 an additional effort was made to go after the U-boats.

In order to provide more protection for the allied convoys, Canada embarked on a crash program of building corvettes which were smaller than a destroyer but effective at finding and destroying U-Boats. By January of 1942 it looked as though the Germans were going to win the Battle of the North Atlantic as they were sinking more allied ships than could be built. In May 1942 the British broke the German naval code and were able to intercept u-boat and wolf pack attacks before they happened. As the addition of long range bombers and smaller aircraft carriers with air cover started to come on line the allies gained a little more space in the race to sink the u-boats before they got the merchant ships. In December 1942 the British broke another German code which enabled them to track the U-boats even more closely. The tide of battle was changing and the allies were now producing more ships than were being sunk and the U-boats were starting to experience severe losses.

Canada was providing half the escorts in service and the U-boat menace had begun to crumble by December of 1943. The battle was just about over and with the invasion of France in 1944 and the capturing of the U-boat bases on the French coast and the intense bombing of the U-Boat land bases, victory could be assured.

By 1945 the Canadian navy had over 400 ships and over 100,000 sailors in service. The Germans were defeated and the war was over in Europe. As the Canadian navy was beginning to reposition for the war in the Pacific the atomic bombs were dropped on Japan and the war came to an end in August of 1945.

CAR SHOW SEASON

Petitcodiac Super Variety

Ask People to Please Support our Downtown Businesses.

Happy Mother's Day

With summer, comes car shows to show off what has been done over the winter to make that vehicle even better.

One of the first great inventions that man has made for himself was the automobile. It has become the great mode of transportation for people as well as our many products.

These cherished vehicles have also become man's pride and joy. Everyone has his or her own favorite, whether it's a car, truck, boat, snowmobile or bike. Many vehicles have been restored or recreated. After all the search and rescue for the perfect vehicle, the tender care to put each part together and the polishing, it is ready to show, brag about and compare.

The Maritime Motorsports Hall Of Fame, at 5 Hooper Lane, Petitcodiac, NB will be holding its seventh annual Petty AutoFest show on June 2nd.

The past six shows have displayed antique cars and trucks, stockcars of different classes, drag cars, motorcycles, stationary engines, snowmobiles and even a soapbox derby cart. The museum is also included in the show. In the past shows there has been music, theatre acts, canteen and prizes. Entries come from PEI, NS, and NB. The revived Moncton Speed & Custom Club is always there to assist. It takes many volunteers and sponsors to put on the show. Each year the entry has received a dash plaque to commemorate the event. A wall plaque is presented to someone of each division. In the past it was decided by the number of fan votes, however this year it will be a draw for each division in order to give everyone a fair chance.

The Brace family, to help raise funds for Jamie Brace to obtain the wheels that is needed for his racing wheelchair, is providing the canteen. Jamie's story is one of courage, strength and determination. He was left a paraplegic after a work related vehicle accident.

The June 2nd show will get underway at 9:00am and close at 4:00pm. Anyone wishing information about the show may email maritimemotorsports@gmail.com or phone 506-756-2110. Anyone may enter his vehicle.

As you go about attending Car Shows this summer, just think about all of the thought, research, searching and hours of toil that has gone into every vehicle that you take a look at. But also remember it was a toil of love.

News From The Maritime Motorsports Hall Of Fame

FRANK MOORE
Competitor/Stock Car Inducted
November 15, 2008

Frank was a mechanic at Fairweather Tire, Saint John when he started racing at the Airport Raceway in 1966.

In 1974 Frank started his own business, Moore's Texaco on Adelaide St, 1980 he moved to Moore's Irving on Main Street where he remained, only the name changed there to Moore's Service Center.

July 23, 1967 Frank Moore from Saint John made his first appearance at Brookside Speedway, Fredericton and was top man in the Modified division, chauffeuring '56 Ford to three big wins, including the 20-lap feature. He also received the "Top Ford" trophy.

Aug. 19, 1968 at the Airport Raceway Frank won three of the Modified races, the Preliminary, Trophy Dash and the Feature. The 1968 season at Brookside Speedway came to a close with Frank Moore declared the points Champion in the Late Model Modified class.

He took top honours several race day's in '68 with his classy red Mustang, running the smallest engine in the class, a 289 cu. in.

Checking the information in the River Glade Speedway programs we find Frank Moore's name in the line-up as far back as 1968 driving car number 54. 1976, driving # 25 he finished eighth overall in the Belvedere Twin 75's. 1977 he was eleventh in the Schooner point standings of 51 drivers and collected $420.00. In '71 he was 5th and '72 was 4th in the standings.

1982 & '83 he was the Bomber Division Champion at Hammond River Raceway. In 1984 he was runner-up. Frank won 25 Feature races in those three years.

Frank also raced at Danny's Speedbowl and Miramichi Speedway.

In 2006 Frank received the Hughie York "Dedication to the Sport Award" from New Brunswick International Speedway.

At the time of his sudden death in 2007 of a heart attack, he was still involved as crew chief for his son, Randy, on his stock car. Stock cars were not the only interests Frank had; he enjoyed bowling, hunting, snowmobiling and pitched for, and managed the Moore's 34 baseball team.

Frank's wife, Gloria accepted Frank's induction into the Maritime Motorsports Hall Of Fame.

On May 6th The Maritime Motorsports Hall Of Fame will hold their Annual General Meeting at 2:00 pm. All members urged to attend and any interested parties

THANK YOU

I would like to express my gratitude and appreciation to everyone who came out to support me and my family at the Timberland Motel and Restaurant on April 1, 2012.

A huge Thank You to every business and organization in both the Sussex and Petitcodiac areas whose generous donations helped to make this event successful beyond my wildest dreams. Much love and appreciation to my friends and family members for your time and energy in planning this event. Without you, this day would not have been as much fun. The turnout was heart warming and your generosity is appreciated more than I can ever convey.

April Showers Bring May Flowers
The day begins all sunny and bright;
It fills a young heart entirely with delight.
Then, suddenly the sky turns dark,
Like a horror movie during the approach of a killer shark.

Clouds turn from that cottony white
TO a dark grey that is as black as night.
Next, that smell pollutes the air,
That smell that only comes this often one month a year.

The scent of damp leaves creeps nearer and nearer
The smell of a major rainfall now becomes clearer.

The air pressure begins to fall;
I feel like I am carrying, on my shoulders,
the entire shopping mall.

Now, as I stand outside in only my new sundress
I realize that I have left my arms vulnerable for goose bumps to caress.
I can hear the wind howl all around,
Sounding like a livid cat shrieking at a hound.

I flee to my house as that soft pitter patter begins to fall
Then grows to the great Civil War, refusing to stop at all.
I feel my cheery mood begin to disperse
From happy-go-lucky to something much worse.

Outside, the only thing I can hear is drip drop, drip drop.
Inside my heart, the only thing I can feel is flip flop, flip flop.
I try to play a game, then read an old novel
But, to my dismay, the only thing I want to do is find Mother Nature and grovel.

Finally, when I begin to loose hope of reaching the end,
Mother Nature decides to send a glow from around the bend.
I can see the gentle breeze blow the storm clouds away
And throw the reins on the rain to hold it at bay.

When I look outside, the sun begins to shine
And I look in that garden that I call mine.
From the ground peaks a little button of green
And I know that May's breathtaking violet crocuses will soon be seen.

2012 H-D HARLEY, HARLEY-DAVIDSON AND THE BAR & SHIELD LOGO ARE AMONG THE TRADEMARKS OF H-D MICHIGAN, LLC.

Many Canadians celebrate Mother's Day by showing their appreciation for mothers or mother figures. The Mother's Day date in Canada is on the second Sunday of May each year.

What do people do?

Many people in Canada express their gratitude towards mothers and mother figures on Mother's Day. Mother figures may include step-mothers, mothers-in-law, guardians (eg. foster parents), and family friends. It is the time for people to thank mothers and mother figures who took the time care for them and help them through life's challenges. Father's Day is also celebrated in Canada on the third Sunday of June, when people thank fathers and father figures for the positive contributions they made.

Some people give cards, flowers, or chocolates, and/or make handmade items or special meals on Mother's Day. Others take their mothers or mother figures to the movies, a restaurant, café, or a day in a park. Some mothers and mother figures also receive special gifts such as jewelry, clothing, accessories, and gift vouchers for services or products.

Public life

Mother's Day is not a federal holiday but it is on a Sunday, when many organizations, schools, and government offices are closed. Public transit systems run to their normal Sunday schedules and restaurants may be busier than usual as some people take their mothers out for a treat.

Background and symbols

Early celebrations of Mother's Day originated from Canada's neighboring country, the United States. Carnations are a popular Mother's Day symbol in both Canada and the United States. Some people may choose to wear a carnation as a brooch on Mother's Day. However, other flowers are also given to mothers or mother figures to symbolize one's love and appreciation for them.

And Grandma's too...

While we honor all our mothers with words of love and praise.
While we tell about their goodness and their kind and loving ways.
We should also think of Grandma,
she's a mother too, you see....
For she mothered my dear mother
as my mother mothers me.
