Maritime Motorsports Hall of Fame Held Eleventh Induction

On Saturday, November 19th the Maritime Motorsports Hall Of Fame held its eleventh annual Induction Ceremony, at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Moncton. 175 interested persons were on hand to witness the celebration.

The evening began with a "Meet & Greet" at 5pm until 6. This was followed by a plated three course meal, with turkey as the main course.

At 7:30 the Induction ceremony began with the first Inductee, Garfield (Skip) Collier from Halifax, Nova Scotia, being inducted for his involvement in Drag Racing. In the early 1960's he raced his red 1959 MG at Maitland Dragway, in 1964 Skip won the top points championship there. Skip was also Technical Director and Classifier at several tracks. During the 1970's indoor car shows started gaining popularity and with Skip's vast knowledge of cars and racing he was called upon to be a judge. In 1981, along with Gary and Hazel Porter, he co-founded the Classic Chevy Club of Nova Scotia. Garfield was unable to attend because of his health, his award was accepted by his son Michael.

Gordon Constable, inducted postmortem. Gordie called home Prince Edward Island. He was inducted for his involvement in Motorcycles, Stockcar racing and Snowmobile races. Gordie lost his life in a snowmobile accident December 23, 2001. He won many Motorcycle races on ice ovals and Snowmobile races on ice and grass. Gordie was crew chief for Roddie MacDonald, Randy MacDonald, Doug Stokes in MASCAR and ACT. His cars had top finishes. Gordie's family accepted his award.

Blair & Gayle Crooks from Dartmouth, Nova Scotia were inducted for Stockcar racing. Blair raced from 1970 to '73, but found he preferred building the cars, so made a business "Crooks Racing" where he built many winning cars; his business was a household name in motor sports. Gayle was a race promoter at Onslow Speedway, Onslow and Scotia Speedworld, Halifax. She was instrumental in improving the sport. Gayle accepted their award from presenter Jim Hallahan.

Ford Country Club of Moncton got its grass roots start back in 1988 and was first known as "Performance Ford of Canada - Eastern Division". In 1990 the Club became "The Ford Country Club" as the members were unhappy sending all the money they raised to head office in Ontario as they thought the money could better be used in this area. Paul Forgrave became President. Over the years the Club has donated over $50,000.00 to various charities and benefits in the area. There have been eleven Presidents. The acting President, Paul Forgrave accepted the award.

Kevin Gallant, a Prince Edward Island boy, was inducted, postmortem, for his involvement in Drag Racing. Kevin was killed in a snowmobile accident on the Confederation Trail, December 18, 2013. In his 18 years he accomplished a great deal and lived it to the fullest. Kevin was a member of the Atlantic Drag Racing Association. He started drag racing at age 8 as a Junior Dragster at Raceway Park, Oyster Bed. He won numerous races there and at Miramichi Drag Park. He was always ready to help others. His aunt, Nora Lee Gallant, accepted his award.

Don Lavoie inducted as a Drag Racing Competitor and for Motor Sports Promotions. Don owns Impression Promotion Ltd. in Dieppe, NB. Don

From the Editor

December, what a busy month!
Our Fall has been so nice to this point. I am wondering what is too come.
I hope the weather stays fine on Friday nights so people can come to play Chase the Ace of Spades at the Petitediac Legion. The Jack Pot is getting near the $5000.00 amount if it doesn't go.
The Maritime Motorsports Hall Of Fame had a large turnout for its eleventh induction, with 175 on Saturday night, November 19th, at the Crown Plaza Hotel and 130 for Brunch Sunday morning at the Hall of Fame Museum.
Now a note to remind our families about giving to us senior family members at Christmas, most of us don't need stuff, we can use gift cards for medical supplies, groceries, eat out cards, or take us out or just to your home. But not stuff to put in the draw never to use. Hope this helps for your Christmas shopping.
Good luck to all the sports teams in your Christmas tournaments. If you have your game results submit them to the Local News & Views to be published. I am wondering how to decorate our new home in Havelock for Christmas to make it joyful for the family as they come for Christmas. It will be different for them, but I guess home is where your parents are.
From the Local News & Views, we want to Thank You for your support and to wish everyone a very merry time of the season, and for all who are looking for Santa we hope he finds you.
I will say Merry Christmas and a Very Prosperous New Year.

Your Editor,
Winona McLean

started Drag racing in 1970 at Cayuga, Ontario. He has raced at tracks throughout Eastern Canada and United States as far South as Florida. He has won first place in ADRA, Stock Super Stock, Super Pro, and Gas. To tell the truth he has too many records and achievements to list. Don also had a bad accident while racing at Miramichi but it did not end his racing. At the Speed Sport shows he came in first 19 times in 40 years. In 2015 Don was the first New Brunswicker to be inducted into the Canadian Drag Racing Hall of Fame in Montreal. With all of his accomplishments it was time for him to be inducted into the Maritime Motorsports Hall Of Fame. Deborah Miller was inducted as a Sports Car Competitor and Motor Sports Builder. She makes her home in Bedford, NS. She started autosalom in 1971. In 1974 she took her first race school at Penfield Ridge, NB. She was an instructor at driving schools. In her peak competitive years she was consistently a Top 5 Driver. In 1993 the makers of the Canadian movie "Cadillac Girls" recruited her as a stunt driver and one of the acts was where she had to crash a Caddie into a guardrail 3 times. She also had a part in a local TV show "Street Cents" riding a motorcycle. The Atlantic Sports Car Club hosted a TV show called "Motorsports Atlantic" for over 10 years and Deborah was the regular host. She has held many positions for the Club including, President and Race Director. Graham Read presented her award. Johnny Montes was inducted for his skills in Motorcycle, Motocross and Recreational. His hometown is Rothsay, NB. He got his start when his father put him on his bike and let Johnny hold on to the handlebars. Soon he was riding by himself. He just wanted to eat, sleep and do motocross. He has won championships from 1987 until 1997. He competed in events and was recognized for outstanding Achievements from 1987-2012. In February 2005 Johnny raced in the British Columbia Arenacross Series and was 3rd over all, he also won the Vancouver Island Championship in both classes. 2012 was his last year to compete as he had a motor vehicle accident on his way to work November 21 causing broken bones in his neck, face and wrist, bruised lungs and damage to his head. Larry Northrup presented his award. Ken (Apples) Paley was inducted for his involvement in Stockcar racing. Ken resides in Saint John, NB. He competed from 1964-1985. He was a crowd favorite and a top competitor, winning the Charger class in 1981 and the Thunder class in '82 at Hammond River Raceway. He was a colorful performer, so when the announcer introduced him, or when he picked up the checkered flag, he would prop himself up, always chewing on his trademark cigar and wave to the fans. When the 1985 season ended at Petty International Raceway, Ken and his Crew took home most of the year-end trophies; Sportsman Championship, Most Popular Drive and his crew received the Canadian Tire Reliability Award. Mike Francis presented the award. Adrian & Lorraine Van Egnond were inducted for what they have done for the Motorcycling world. They make their home in Moncton. They ran Adrian's Bike Shop on Mountain Road, Moncton. At the Motorcycle races Adrian was a competitor, referee, flagman or mechanic. Whenever a group of Motorcycle riders came to Moncton the Van Egnond's were right there to greet them and help in any way they could. Lorraine worked the store all the hours it was open. Their shop provided professional motorcycle sales and service for over 50 years. Roy Blakney presented the award. A Brunch was hosted at the Maritime Motorsports Hall Of Fame Museum on Sunday morning. 130 enthusiastic motor sport fans filled the conference rooms to a large spread for prepared food put on by several volunteers. Note: The Maritime Motorsports Hall Of Fame officials wishes to extend a heart felt Thank You to the many sponsors and volunteers.

ELGIN NEWS!

Elgin W.I. Members

Plan December Events

November's regular meeting of the Elgin Women's Institute took place on Thursday the 17th at the Seniors' Maple Cafe. After anthems and Mary Stewart's Collect, eleven members answered the evening's roll call: Did you have a teddy bear when you were little? Some simply couldn't remember. Others had a beloved doll, pink monkey, black Scotty dog or a green overcoat with cosy flannel lining. Teddy bears were not commonplace, it seems. Yet everyone loved the quotation of the month from A.A. Milne's Winnie the Pooh: the confidence-boosting "You are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think."

Members made plans to thank our twenty-eight local firefighters with a Christmas lunch to be served after their meeting at the Fire Hall on December 13th; a gesture of gratitude to the volunteers who safeguard our community throughout the year.

The vanGeest home will be the site of this year's Christmas potluck to be celebrated on Thursday, December 15th at 6:30 p.m. Members will bring favourite dishes and desserts. Julie Kean Marks and Bonny Price will direct entertainment. As always, there'll be a gift exchange; this year with locally made items.

Agriculture program convener, Zahera Denath, spoke on the subject of "Halaal," a listing of foodstuffs permitted for the Islamic population. Halaal foods are estimated to comprise over 16% of the global market. A certification panel regulates the production and distribution in Canada. Halaal food and its availability has made local and national news this past year because of the arrival of thousands of Syrian refugees. Thanks to Zahera for her enlightening information.

Hostesses Moranda vanGeest and Bonny Price served treats from garden and orchard before members said good night. Until we meet again . . . Christmas Party on Thursday, December 15th.

ELGIN SENIORS:

We had our Election of Officers this past Wednesday. We had a couple of new nominations for an office and others stayed on for another term. We enjoyed dinner at the Petittcodiac Legion on Wednesday and had a lovely annual November tour, led by Cathy Drury, of the War Museum upstairs following our meal. Cathy is very knowledgeable and the tour was most interesting!

We will be gaining 5 new members on the first of January and we regret the recent passing of 2 regular members, Walter & Shirley.

Our meetings are now going to be held on the third Monday of each month at 2:00 p.m. with our usual pot luck meals as the Maple Tree Cafe will be closed on Mondays beginning on November 21st. This is a better arrangement for Shirley Cole, our club and the W. I. Please visit our Café. We thank Shirley for all of her hard work!

We extend our condolences to the family of Shirley Steeves with her sudden passing. We as a club will surely miss her smile and all her laughs!

Our Number Block Contest is ongoing with a chance to win that $50.00 bill.

Our Annual Christmas Banquet had to be cancelled this year but we are having a Christmas Dinner at the Family Favorites Restaurant in Petittcodiac on December 1st, at 1:00 p.m., ordering from their menu. We will be having our Gift Exchange with a spending limit of $5.00 per person.

The Elgin Seniors Club do wish you a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! Mona and Ruth

Last night on November 22 the Elgin Eco Association had the honour of attending an award ceremony for the Lieutenant Governor's Award for excellence in land Conservation. It was a beautiful ceremony and reception that three members of the EEA were able to attend at Government House. There we met many wonderful people that all believe strongly in taking care of our natural world. Some have donated their land to Nature Trust others work in the conservation sector others make financial donations. The award went to a gentleman who has during his lifetime been able to conserve large areas of wilderness in New Brunswick and Canada. This is an award created by the nature Trust. The Nature Trust and The Wildlife trust fund are two larger organizations that have helped the Elgin Eco Association reach their goal of being able to buy "The Mapleton Acadian Trail Property" The official take-over will take place early next month. As you can all understand this is an amazing achievement for the EEA. We hope through-out the coming year to add a new hiking trail and fix up the old sugar camp. In this newspaper we like to inform the public about the various bird and plant species that can be found on this remarkable property. On December 1 we will hold a potluck supper in the Maple Tree Cafe/Seniors building in Elgin. If you like to know more about the EEA please come and join us for a fun and relaxing evening and meet our regular members. The Little Libraries are being used. The most popular little library is the one standing in the Elgin ECO park. Our youth makes more use of it than the adults. We encourage you to go and see for your self. Please also try to visit the library posted near the W.I. Hall on Gowland Mountain. We take real pride in our Little Libraries because it is an easy and simple way to exchange books. There is never a closed door at this library. You can also leave a note for the librarian. We are also currently working on upgrading our website. This might take some time and in the meantime you will be redirected to our facebook. The Elgin Eco Association wishes everybody a happy holiday season, a Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah and Happy New Year.

A Bit About Our Canadian History as we near 150 years of confederation

A Bit About Canada Continued

Samuel de Champlain (French: born Samuel Champlain; on or before August 13, 1574- December 25, 1635), "The Father of New France", was a French navigator, cartographer, draughtsman, soldier, explorer, geographer, ethnologist, diplomat, and chronicler. He founded New France and Quebec City on July 3, 1608. He is important to Canadian history because he made the first accurate map of the coast and he helped establish the settlements. As young man, began exploring North America in 1603 under the guidance of Francois Grave Du Pont, his uncle. From 1604 to 1607 Champlain participated in the exploration. In 1608, he established the French settlement that is now Quebec City. Champlain was the first European to explore and describe the Great Lakes, and publish maps of his journeys and accounts of what he learned from the natives and the French living among the Natives. He formed relationships with local Montagnais and Iroquois and later with others farther west (Ottawa River, Lake Nipissing, or Georgian Bay), with Algonquin and with Huron Wendat, and he agreed to provide assistance in their wars against the Iroquois. In 1620, Louis XIII of France ordered Champlain to cease exploration, return to Quebec, and devote himself to the administration of the country. Samuel de Champlain served as Governor of New France; a title that may have been formally unavailable to him owing to his non-noble status. The Governor then had responsibilities over both military and civil affairs in the colonies. He established trading companies that sent goods primarily fur, to France, and oversaw the growth of New France in the St. Lawrence River valley until his death in 1635. Champlain is memorialized as the "Father of New France" and "Father of Acadia", and many places, streets, and structures in northeastern North America bear his name, or have monuments established in his memory. To name a few: A French school in Saint John, New Brunswick; Ecole Champlain, an elementary school in Moncton; a CEGEP with three campuses in Quebec, in Queen Square, Saint John a memorial statue that commemorates his discovery of the Saint John River. Champlain Place, also known as Champlain Mall, in Dieppe, New Brunswick, Canada. At the time it was built it was the largest single-building shopping centre in Atlantic Canada by floor space.

Comedy at Large by Laurie Blanchard Salisbury, NB

It is winter
He stands by the chimney,
His cheeks and nose are bright red,
His whiskers are frosted white
Smoke curls from his mouth
His suit is stained with black soot

I warned him to connect the ground wire before plugging in the Christmas lights !

It took Michelangelo the best part of seven years to paint the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel. He was ok with the 7 years but what really ticked him off is when he was asked to put on a second coat !

The great comedian Jack Benny once said "...give me golf clubs, fresh air and a beautiful partner and you can keep the clubs and the fresh air." His friend, an expert bridge player said, "...give me a deck of playing cards, a bridge table and an expert partner and you can keep the golf course."

Modern technology ! Ah yes, it's everywhere around us and growing at a rapid pace. A gentleman was telling me that he is far removed from all that. I have no computer, I-pod, I-pad, cell phone or any of those new contraptions, he said. I entertain myself sitting at my old upright piano playing tunes from the 40's and 50's ! Sound corny? Well listen up... the wife and I were at a restaurant recently and we watched a family of 5 waiting for their dinner as they sat at their table. They weren't talking to each other or even making visual contact. No-sirree Bob, they were all texting in their own world of cyberspace. Who knows, they may have been texting each other! After pausing momentarily, he said....I'll take the corny!

CHRISTMAS PHONE CALL By Gloria Scribner

Be sure to call at Christmas time
I need to hear you say
"Have a Merry Christmas Mama"
It will make my day
To know that you remembered
And that you'd like to be
At home for Christmas dinner
Eating apple pie with me.
There are many miles between us
And the winds of winter blow
Sending clouds of silver shadows
Over freshly-fallen snow,
And I see you in my mem'ry
Making forts to lie in wait.
For the victims of your arsenal
(A snowball is his fate).
And I see the figures etched upon
The frozen winter pond, as I tighten up your skates again
And then you're up and gone.
Your cheeks like candy-apples
Rosy-red; and eyes aglow.
What I'd give to live again
A day from long ago.
So call, please do at Christmas time
And journey o'er the miles.
Down mem'ry lane, just once again
To when you were a child.
And life was oh so simple then
And happiness was free
And I'll pretend its "Christmas Past"
And you are here with me.

"Trick or Treat" - Alma Steeves

"Trick or Treat" brings out the candy & chips, but, at one home in Elgin, Alma Steeves was ready to treat her visitors with a pair of hand knit mittens with candy inside.

Yes, that's right she was prepared with 68 pairs that she had knit herself over the past year. They ranged from the very tiniest to adult, all colors of the rainbow.

The kids young and old love them and make sure that they visit Alma for a pair of the colorful warm mitts.

Alma is very active at 89 years of age, she not only knits but quilts and is a member of the Elgin Seniors Club, faithful attendee at First Elgin Baptist Church and member of the Women's Missionary Society.

Our seniors are special and contribute a great deal to our communities, so thank to you Alma for your contribution and friendly hospitality.

We are pleased to announce that the Salisbury Big Stop Plans to re-establish the "Charity Table" to help support the various non-profit, community-assistant organizations within the greater Salisbury/Petitcodiac areas.

To do this, we are setting aside a specific table at the Silver Fox Restaurant whereby 10% of the total sales from that table for a one-month period will be donated to the designated organization or club selected for that month. Along with this, a donation bottle will also be placed at the counter to receive additional contributions if our customers so choose. This table will be reserved for a specific organization for a period of one month.

Our proposed schedule for the next seven months is as follows:

Nov. 2016 --- Salisbury Food Bank (Helping Hands)

Dec. 2016 --- Petitcodiac Fire Fighters Association

Jan. 2017 --- Jordan Life Care Centre

Feb. 2017 --- Salisbury Fire Fighters Association

Mar. 2017 --- Petitcodiac Legion Branch #41

Apr. 2017 --- Salisbury Library

We would also ask that everyone get out to support the fund raisers for your local communities each month. They are all a very worth while causes, so again get out there to show your support.

This month's charity was Petitcodiac/Salisbury Minor Hockey. We are proudly donating $939.93 to the association, thanks to everyone who came up and sat at the Silver Fox Charity Table this October! This month is the helping hands food bank in Salisbury, come up and ask for table 63.

Remembering "Christmas Past"

By Gloria Scribner

For days now I have been wrapping and shopping, making lists and packing boxes for their Alberta destinations. With 41 grandchildren and 14 great-grandchildren I start shopping in early spring, and still look forward to this time of year. I love the wrapping time and use miles of ribbon to make big bows and dream of the little gifts I wrapped as a child. All we had back then was tissue paper and string and stickers that you had to lick. It was quite a delicate procedure with no scotch-tape or gift bags.

The gifts were a bit different too; socks and ties for Dad, cups and saucers or an apron for Mama, a hankie for Grandma, and a rattle for baby. Of course Santa brought the "big" stuff like dolls and trains and "whirling" spin-tops. If we were really lucky, a favourite Aunt would buy a book. And of course, because Santa took pity on Moms and Dads something to get us out of the house, like a sled or a pair of skates (wise old guy, that Santa).

There were no gift cards, video games or cell phones, not even portable radios. We didn't even have T.V. until I was 13. The highlight of pre-Christmas festivities was the concert. Since all the country kids attended a one-room school house the whole community filled the little building. The men usually stood, and the teacher accompanied our carols on the pump organ. We memorized verses back then. No reading parts, and I don't recall anyone ever forgetting their lines either. No prompters as I recall. We stood there in our white stockings, hair ribbons and Sunday dresses. The boys with new haircuts and shiny shoes, so anxious to make our folks proud. The gift exchanges followed and each one cost about 10 cents. Lastly, a bag of candy put us on top of the world. Just prior to the big day Daddy hitched up the horses and sled and we all climbed aboard to find a suitable Christmas tree. We helped decorate it with lots of icicles, but no lights. How lovely the smell of that beautiful Evergreen. No artificial trees then, but come to think of it, all of life seemed a bit more genuine back then. My sister and I spent our days dreaming our way through the Eaton's Christmas catalogue (before it took its final resting place in the out-house). We wrote letters to Santa and mailed them at the little post office with a 4 cent stamp. Cards were sent with 2 cent stamps if you didn't seal them. Weeks before Christmas the ladies prided themselves in making fruitcakes. I recall the opener to conversations was "Have you got your fruitcakes made yet?" I didn't develop a taste for fruitcake until I was older; gingerbread and shortbread were more to my liking. The same holds true today, but I still make fruitcake and the kids still say, "Yuck! Old-folks food!"

We hung stockings on Christmas Eve but usually preferred to use Daddy's work socks because they held more. Santa brought ribbon candy, barley toys and candy canes, but the once a year treat was that big juicy orange in the toe. There were always toys as well. Daddy always had the furnace stoked and the horses fed before we opened our gifts. The milk and cookies having been consumed by St. Nick sometime during that magical night. And it was a birthday party like no other, full of Peace and Joy and Love. I've heard the "Christmas Story" so many times, and I'm always awed by the gifts of the wisemen to the child Jesus of Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh. We all have our own Christmas memories and I remember three particular ones. At the age of fifteen I opened a little red velvet box that held my "Gold", a heart shaped locket from someone who loved me. Enough gold to last a lifetime. On my twentieth Christmas my gift was carried into the living room by my husband-to-be. His name was "Frank" and he presented to me my own box of "incense", a cedar chest. As I opened it I breathed in the aromatic scent of overwhelming joy. Thro' the years it held my wedding gown, the first outfits and little shoes of 12 children and oh! So much hope! On my twenty-fifth Christmas I came to understand the meaning of the gift of "Myrrh", for that last gift of the "Magi" came (and still does) in the shape of tears, rendered laboriously, extracting the sweet delicate odour called "oil of Myrrh". To me it speaks "bittersweet" since the happiness of my three children that day was evident and beautiful, but my own happiness was overshadowed from the memory of the child I had buried in early summer. I hear people talk about the commercialization of Christmas and it makes me wonder, because today I see so much sharing at this time of year. I see the Salvation Army Santa's ringing their bells, the food bank bins being topped up. The responses to turkey drives and toy requests for the under-privileged (or maybe simply over-whelmed). I see shoe-boxes being filled and transported by plane loads to children in far off countries. I see seniors smiling in care homes as carolers drop by to "Wish them a Merry Christmas". I see street people welcomed lovingly into places like Harvest House and Refuge Nazareth, and treated as welcomed guests. Although I know there will always be those who are forgotten or who fall through the cracks (and some of the loneliest are among the most affluent). Life seems to touch us all a bit more at Christmas time, but no one can deny, that at this time of year there "is" something magical in the air. You see it in the smiles, courtesies, generosity and once again in the memories of "Christmas Past" bringing nostalgia to our hearts and "Joy to the World."

The Carols

Christmas is finally here
The sound of the carols fill the cold air
Singing joyfully those Christmas songs
And the carolers can merrily sing along

Every note, every line
Digs into my heart to divine
Angelic voices resounding in the night
Along with the guitar strummed in delight

The Carols shift from hymns to jives
Sounding glorious as the melody drives
Filled with awe as I harken quietly
The night is cold but peace

All I Want for Christmas is You, Baby

Mark Cullen is an expert gardener, member of the Order of Canada, author and broadcaster. Get his free monthly newsletter at markcullen.com. Look for his new best seller, "The New Canadian Garden" published by Dundurn Press. Follow him on Twitter @MarkCullen4 and Facebook.

Christmas gift lists can be a pain. My kids tell me that they have trouble buying for me as I seem to have everything that I want and if I need a new tie I just go buy one. Perception is their reality; I haven't bought a new tie in years. I have come up with an answer: I don't want you to buy me anything. All I want for Christmas is you.

Indulge me for a moment and maybe a light will come on in your head that will make this Christmas an easier one for those who buy for you.

Experience

I have a son-in-law who is a green architect. He ventured into the field with an eye to making the planet a greener place. "Martin" I said to him, "why not take me on a bicycle tour of 'green' buildings in Toronto. Show me your favourites and explain why they are so special." He did. And we had a wonderful day of it.

another son-in-law loves to play golf. "Rene" I said, "how about taking me out for a game of golf and we just enjoy that time together." We did and it was wonderful. No diversions like kids with wet diapers.

If you are a gardener, you are among the easiest people to give to. Think of all of the experiences that you would value sharing with family and friends.

1. A trip to a park. Not just any old park but one with flowers and heritage trees. Tour a local community or allotment garden. In season. Public gardens provide the perfect place for nosey gardeners like me to poke around and pick up all kinds of wonderful ideas for our own garden.

2. An outdoor garden concert. Check out the concerts planned for your local gardens. You might not get the detailed schedule of events until spring, but the idea is there. Print off the homepage from any of these venues and enclose it in a card with a note, "I will take you and bring a picnic at a time of your choosing." Or something to that effect.

3. Garden. Just you and me and the bees. Offer to plant a gardener's garden come spring. Or dig the holes (more to the point!), do some weeding, pruning

(if you are competent in this area) or fertilize the lawn. You get the idea. YOU are the gift: your time, talent and energy.

4. Bee hotel. This is an idea that is taking off right across the country and I take full credit for it. Take just about any old stuff that you have around the garage and build habitat for beneficial insects and small animals like toads, frogs, snakes and salamanders. Remember: the secret to attracting 'beneficials' is rot and decay. Most of us have lots of old lumber, firewood, mouldy cardboard, bricks, sand, flagstone or what-have-you lying around somewhere.

Admittedly, not everything listed here is free. So while we are on the topic, here is a short list to help make it easy for you.

Under $10
Dirt bag. You think I am kidding? You can buy very good quality soil for under $10. Look for product with my name on it, or a brand that you trust, similar to my own and perhaps almost as good.

Plus: flexible plant ties, plant ID stakes, spiral tomato stake, lawnmower scraper, box of plant fertilizer, several seed packets (with a seed catalogue, free), Harrowsmith All Canadian Almanac or Garden Making (Canadian) Magazine.

Under $20
Garden gloves (good ones). Cheap ones are a waste.

Stainless steel garden scoop, hand trowel, short handled garden fork or cultivator, garden twine and dispenser, clay pots, hummingbird feeder, quality birdseed, bee hotel, lawn sprinklers and hand held hose end nozzles. And my newest book The New Canadian Garden (20). Dundurn Press, www.dundurn.com).

Under $50
A Back Hoe (my version of the ultimate weeding/planting tool), quality watering can (look for 'Hawes' - best in the business!), quality hand pruners and tree loppers, bird feeders, butterfly habitat, terrarium planter kit, balcony planters, window boxes, stainless steel digging tools and frankly this list could go on and on.

I think you get the idea.

Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah.
