From the Editor

September 2019. Ten years ago we were preparing for our Grand Opening at the Maritime Motorsports Hall Of Fame and Museum, which was held on October 16, 2009. So much has taken place since then, the Museum has received numerous items since it's beginning, and many people have used the facility for a variety of occasions, as well as for the promotion of motor sports and its people. To celebrate this building a 10th Anniversary Open House is being held November 15th at the Hall from 2-4PM. Everyone welcome, so be sure to mark your calendar to remind you.

It is time for the students to start another year of their education, and as always this will go very fast. Parents - put on your smiling faces as you send or take your babies for their first day of school. Another chapter of their life begins and yours as well.

September has many activities scheduled for the local communities such as: the famous Elgin Turkey Supper on September 28th and the Elgin Bike Tour October 5th.

This year we get right into the Labour Day weekend starting August 31 - Sept 2. The Sussex Balloon Festival is taking place September 6 to 8th.

The September Equinox in Moncton, New Brunswick, is on Monday, September 23, 2019 at 4:50 am ADT. The September equinox occurs the moment the Sun crosses the celestial equator - the imaginary line in the sky above Earth's Equator - from north to south. This happens either on September 22, 23, or 24 every year. Wishing everyone wonderful Labour Day Weekend.

Dogs are People, Too

By Mark and Ben Cullen

Mark Cullen is an expert gardener, author, broadcaster, tree advocate and Member of the Order of Canada.

His son Ben is a fourth-generation urban gardener and graduate of University of Guelph and Dalhousie University in Halifax. Follow them at markcullen.com, @markcullengardening, and on Facebook.

As the youngest of the four kids, Ben hasn't blazed too many trails in the family.

Last to graduate school, last to get married, and still hasn't bought a house. But don't feel too bad for him, because he finally got his 'first' first in the family - dog ownership.

Around Christmas last year, Ben and his wife Sam met Ruby the dog at Pearson Airport. Their "potcake" arrived from an adoption agency in St. Lucia. They call them potcakes on the islands because they eat the food burned to the bottom of the pot. Ruby was a stray at the local dump. Upon landing in Canada, she traded burned rice for kibbles, and a city dump for the backyard of Ben and Sam's rented house, with daily trips to the off-leash park.

After Ruby arrived, Ben and Sam looked at everything with a new perspective: daily schedules, summer plans, and gardens. What was an expression of their veggie-plot wishes and plant-sale whims all changed post Ruby.

We recommend that you consider the following when accommodating beloved fur-friends in your garden:

-Plant toxicity. One of the most common questions we get is whether certain plants will kill a dog or cat. Generally, a pet needs to eat plants fairly compulsively to suffer any effects from the "standard" mildly toxic plants such as Alocasia and Aloe. Garden plants such as Autumn Crocus, Azalea, Cyclamen, Kalanchoe, Lilies (Tiger, Day, Asiatic, Easter and Japanese Show), Oleander, Dieffenbachia, Daffodils, Lily of the Valley, Sago Palm, Tulips and Hyacinth have the potential to be much more harmful. Not all dogs or cats are plant-eaters, but if you have seen this tendency in yours, it would be worth finding no-risk alternatives such as Dogwood, Smoke Tree, Forsythia, Spirea or Lilac. These websites have extensive lists of plants to avoid: <https://www.asPCA.org/pet-care/animal-poison-control/toxic-and-non-toxic-plants> and <https://www.humanesociety.org/resources/plants-may-poison-your-pets>.

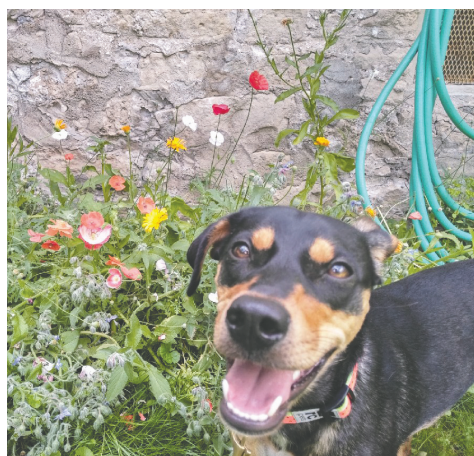

-Designated "Business" Zone. Sounds like an economic-development plan, but if you've ever donned a housecoat at night in January so your dog can do her "business", you know what we're talking about. A smart dog can be trained to contain this to an area, so it's good to plan somewhere discreet, tidy often and minimize the odds of "stepping in it".

-Made in the Shade. It's easy to underestimate how the heat affects pets. Even with Ruby's Caribbean lineage, she really slows down in the summer heat. Make sure you have a tree or shrub where they can flop down, and a patch of grass or ground cover for them to flop into. Growing in the shade can be difficult, especially when a small beast has made that shady spot their favourite place, but it's worth it to maintain ground cover there for a few reasons. Bare dirt absorbs heat when it's exposed and tends to follow the pets into the house when they've been laying in it, not to mention a bed of foliage is just more comfortable. We recommend pachysandra, Irish moss, or Winter creeper (euonymus fortunei) which will grow just about anywhere. Providing a cool place to hang out can also minimize the amount of doggy digging.

-Happy and Hydrated. Some dogs just know how to find the water that is going to upset their stomachs. Puddles, ponds and even birdbaths can all play host to bacteria which can affect your dog, so it is best not to tempt them if they're thirsty. Have a bowl of fresh water available to them in the yard just outside your back door if possible.

-Remember our Feathered Friends. Chances are if you love your pets, you love birds too. Bird Studies Canada finds that the biggest threat to wild bird populations is domesticated cats, which kill over 100 million birds in Canada each year. Studies find that cats are just too stealth to be stopped by bell-collars, so it is recommended that they be kept inside. If your dog is also a bird hunter, best to leash them in the yard or remove those bird feeders to avoid tempting birds into the danger zone. Having a fenced off garden will help you enjoy the benefits of the hobby without the problems associated with dog-life. To learn more about dog-adoptions from St Lucia visit <http://helpaws.com/>.

Hon. Ross Wetmore, Gagetown - Petitcodiac

Ross Wetmore Agriculture Commentary

It seems like only a few days since our last communication but that's how quickly summer passes.

It also does not seem like 9 months since our PC government was sworn in, but that anniversary occurred on August 9th.

August began with the news that our Lieutenant Governor, Jocelyne Roy Vienneau had passed away following her brave battle with cancer. I believe we all are saddened at the loss of such a wonderful New Brunswicker.

On July 31st I was glad to host the Honourable Jamie Fox, Minister of Fisheries and Communities for Prince Edward Island. It's always a benefit to share common goals and initiatives with our neighbouring provinces.

As you may know, Jamie is a native New Brunswicker, born and raised in Woodstock.

Over the past month I have travelled extensively throughout our province and beyond owing to my duties as Minister of Agriculture, Aquaculture and Fisheries. Happily, I have also had the opportunity to travel throughout our riding including a visit to the Gagetown Market on August 11th with the 'Buy NB' team. Gagetown Market is open Sundays from 11-3 until early October. Petitcodiac Farmers' Market is held Saturdays from 10 - 2. We find ourselves in the heart of fresh, local produce season and I encourage you to enjoy plenty of our local harvest.

Wherever I go in our riding, people continue to share the common concerns of roads, bridges, flood mitigation and the return of the Gagetown ferry.

As MLA, I continue to advocate for improvements to our existing infrastructure and for projects to lessen the impact of flooding. I also continue to press for a return date of the ferry.

I am pleased to report 4.3 kilometers of paving on Route 905 from inside Petitcodiac Village limits to Elgin. Minister Mike Holland and I have been working diligently on this project and it is our hope that an equal or greater amount of paving will occur each year until completion.

In only a handful of days our children will return to school. Please be mindful of them while you drive.

Once school begins again it will be only a few more days until the beginning of the Queen's County Fair.

This year the fair runs from September 12th through 15th.

Established in 1939 and paused during the Second World War, this will be the 74th annual fair.

Our agriculture-based fair offers something for everyone. From the barns and exhibit halls to the midway, vendors and variety of entertainment. Thursday is Parade Day and Children's Day.

Friday is Senior Citizens Day and Sunday is bracelet day with children 12 and under admitted free all four fair days. For a full schedule of events, program, history and more information please visit the Fair's website at www.queenscountyfair.com.

I will close by saying a heartfelt thanks to all the volunteers who make our Queen's County Fair a huge success year after year. If you visit their website, you might click on the 'fair executive' tab to get a sense of how many volunteers hours it takes to put on the many events.

Our Queens County fair has a 7-member executive with a 35-member board of directors and 26 committees.

I must also point out that our Westmorland County Agricultural fair held from July 29 to August 5th was a great success because of another regiment of dedicated volunteers. Please visit their Facebook page to see lots of great pictures.

Thanks again to one and all.

Another summer past by in a flash. The Elgin Eco Association sure made the best of it. The annual summer camp was a thundering success. The fifth week we walked the river. It is an exciting adventure for all that participated. Many children name this the highlight of the summer camp. As they do every year, they insisted cooking a supper for their guests. Is was delicious. Roast chicken, roast vegetables, maple pureed sweet potatoes and a souffle for dessert. The camp volunteers are fantastic people from our community that freely give every Tuesday to spent with the children. We also hatched 18 chicks in an incubator.

Elgin Park has its very own Pump Track. This pump track can be enjoyed by children and adults on their bikes. You can race each other or practice your biking skills. Motor bikes and other motorized vehicles should not use this track because it will ruin it. Beware on it when wet. It has been a big project and we want it to last a long time. Please enjoy it and take care of it. Wear a helmet when on your bike.

The garden boxes in the Eco park are full of vegetables. Feel free to pick some. We don't like to see them go to waste.

If you have not yet taken a hike on the Mapleton Acadian forest trail, now is a great time of year to consider doing so. Just 3 kilometers into the Mapleton road on your right hand side is the driveway to the parking lot and head of the trail.

Elgin Day was another great success. A large turn out from young and old. Many came to listen to Justin Bannister play some fantastic tunes. Children couldn't get enough of the Bouncy Castles. Nobody could get enough of the delicious and well-prepared hamburgers and hotdogs. Many also tried out the new Pump track. Until the rain put an end to the activities in the park, people moved on to the W.I Hall for some history about Elgin Corner. We like to thank all the volunteers for their help and making Elgin Day a success.

Many people are not aware that the EEA rents out kayaks for half days and full days. There are 8 kayaks they can hold 11 people. If you like to rent a kayak you may do so by going to the Maple Tree Café in Elgin. Discounts for members.

We are now preparing for our biggest event of the year and our EEA fundraiser. The Elgin mountain Bike race. This International bike race is an event like no other. Bikers from all over Canada and beyond come to take part in this race, dubbed the toughest mountain bike race in Atlantic Canada. Due to this we are always looking for volunteers. Volunteers for a large variety of jobs, from kitchen or cooking to trails. If you can help out we love to hear from you. You can call Moranda at 756-2518. You can also decide to try to take part yourself and do any of our 20km, 40km, 80km, or the notorious 120 km distance. If none of the above appeals to you, you might like to sponsor our race or donate a door prize.

Our next meeting will be held in the W.I Hall in Elgin September 5 at 7 pm. Caring about your community is never time that is wasted. It benefits us all.

Magnesium: A Natural Remedy to Treat Migraine

Migraine attacks have plagued human kind for centuries and they are still a major cause of disability worldwide. During a recent reunion at the Harvard Medical School, a professor told me of an interesting study. He said that Dr. Stephanie W. Goldberg, a neurologist at Tufts Medical Center in Boston, has reported that magnesium can be helpful in treating these debilitating headaches.

Migraine attacks are not your typical headache. Rather, they're associated with an intense throbbing pain, usually on one side of the head, accompanied by nausea, vomiting, and an increased sensitivity to light and sound. Patients may also complain of visual disturbances, such as flashes of light, zigzag lines or stars.

It's not surprising that Statistics Canada finds 63% of those with migraine attacks suffer from mild depression and 20% moderate to severe depression. This has a major effect on their quality of life. Women are affected more than men. And a study at the University of Maryland showed that more than half of migraine patients also have a family member who had this disease.

The University of Maryland Medical Center reports that in patients who were deficient in magnesium there was a 41.6% decrease in the frequency of migraine attacks when treated with magnesium. In addition, there was a decrease in drug use.

Dr. Carolyn Dean, a world expert on magnesium, says in her book "The Magnesium Miracle" that magnesium deficiency is related to migraine attacks in several ways.

Magnesium has been called nature's major relaxant. This helps to relax spasms and constrictions of arteries that can trigger migraine. Magnesium regulates the action of neurotransmitters and inflammatory substances which are believed to play a role in migraines. It also oils platelets, small particles in the blood, which decreases the risk that a tiny blood clot will form blocking an artery and causing pain. And it prevents the buildup of lactic acid that triggers head pain.

So what do experts say about the various ways of treating migraine attacks? In order to break the cycle of pain, Dr. Goldberg says an intravenous injection of magnesium is typically done in an emergency room setting. Other studies show that an oral route can also be effective.

For instance, Carolyn Dean reports that in a study of 3,000 patients who were prescribed 200 milligrams of magnesium daily there was an 80% decrease in migraine symptoms.

What about the safety of magnesium? A 2018 report, published in the journal Headache, evaluated the effects of several studies on patients 18 to 65. It concluded that supplementation with high levels of magnesium is safe, cost efficient, and possibly effective in preventing migraine.

Dr. Goldberg cautions, "There is an impression that over-the-counter magnesium supplements are safe to use and that people believe they can use as much as they want. But magnesium in high quantities can have toxic effects such as muscle weakness, cardiac problems, loss of reflexes, trouble breathing and diarrhea."

But Goldberg adds "the chance of experiencing these side-effects is small. However, people should be aware of them."

I would offer this advice. It's been said with justification, that "he or she who treats himself has a fool for a patient." This is always sound advice, as being your own doctor can result in unintended consequences. As another wise sage remarked, "Too much of anything can sometimes be worse than none at all!" Since evidence indicates that about 50% of migraine sufferers are helped by this natural remedy, it's worth discussing the possible benefits of magnesium with your doctor and with the experts in natural health stores.

It was once quoted that dreams are the windows of the soul. Take a peek and you can see all the inner workings, the nuts and the bolts. Truth be told, the last time I took a peek, all I saw were a few rusty nails and an old worn out horseshoe!

I see that Lotus is going to produce a supercar called EVIJA. The price, 2.1 million buckaroos ! It will be an electric vehicle that produces 1,972 horsepower. They say 0 to 60 in under 3 seconds! It only sits 4 inches off the ground so you gotta watch out for speed bumps. They only plan to produce 130 units. Oh, and this ...you have to put down a deposit of 350,000 loonies to secure a production allocation! I guess I will not be ordering as I am challenged to come up with the deposit, but wait, maybe I could have a couple of yard sales and set up a lemonade stand. Oh and by the way, it will be made of carbon fiber. Hmmm.... so much for reducing our er ...carbon footprint.

Many people have fears. For some, it's the fear of darkness, the fear of heights, claustrophobia and yes, the fear of flying. A man once said that his mother in law had a fear of flying. She just couldn't balance herself on the broomstick! I doubt he would have made that statement had she been standing next to him, especially if she had the broom in hand!

In a book that I read titled "1000 Places To See before you die" , a resort town on the western coast of France which caters to the well-to-do people, is studded with five star accommodations and restaurants! One ritzy hotel proclaims - if you are planning on staying here, pack an extra suitcase full of cash. We do not accept credit cards. That hotel's most expensive lodging is the Madonna suite at $ 3,275.00 per night! Hmmm...I can almost hear Madonna pondering ....what's in your wallet or more appropriately , what's in your suitcase?

“Our People Make a Difference”

Boys and Girls Club of Petitcodiac

The Petitcodiac Boys & Girls Club has been undergoing many renovations to renew and revitalize the programs that we offer to children and families in the community. During the June United Way Day of Caring, employees from Greystone came and painted the After school Program room, giving it a fresh new look.

Over the summer we have been working on Tiny Tykes classrooms, painting and reorganizing. We are currently working on a new playground for Tiny Tykes and have a vast array of new equipment to install once the groundwork is completed. Our centre was one of the fortunate recipients of a playhouse which was built by NBCC carpentry students. We feel that this natural playground will be a better concept for the children to experience play.

By the end of the month, we hope to have our wheelchair ramp completed and accessibility doors installed. We will then be better equipped to offer services to those in wheelchairs.

When all work is completed, we will host an open house to the community and everyone will be invited to come and see the work that has been accomplished, keeping with our National Tag Line, A Good Place to Be.

Jam Session

by Gloria Scribner

How many remember the lyrics “If I could save time in a bottle?” Unfortunately the only means of doing that is to dream, or recall, or perhaps scrapbook; filling them all with something, be it happiness or sorrow.

We’ll soon be in the thick of harvest and with it preserving and freezing and drying foods for the future months when our world is covered in ice and snow and nothing grows.

Unless we choose to avail ourselves of supermarket fare and flown-in produce from Mexico, California, or the Far East, we will have filled our freezer with the home-grown, be it fiddleheads, or free range chickens. Our pantries (some of us still have them), and cellars (them too), are stacked with bottles of jams, fruits, and canned garden vegetables, anything we can fit into a bottle.

I no longer have the energy I did as a young housewife, for picking berries, weeding garden rows, or standing for hours over a hot stove, but at this time of year, as I pass the mason jar aisles and see the shelves of sugar and vinegar involved in the little price wars, I have a longing to once again be stoking up the woodstove, and getting out the Barbours cookbook and the big kettle to spend the day turning out shining bottles of Lady Ashburns, strawberry jam, cranberry jellies, and every kind of marmalade imaginable.

It's been awhile since I added anything to those cellar shelves, actually their abundance hasn't receded in the past two years. There is only so much one person can eat.

I have noticed that of all the gifts I have stuffed in Alberta-bound Christmas boxes each year, nothing is as appreciated as much as the bottles of strawberry and blackberry jam. Maybe their hearts remember (or their tummies) when they were kids.

I still do a few bottles for old time's sake.

Nowadays, with changing diets, I see the women turning to salsas and such. More peppers are harvested, and instead of carrots buried in boxes of sand, they are put into freezer bags and into bottles of hot sauces, a good way for utilizing that abundance of tomatoes, and getting kids to "eat their veggies". Healthy children will eat almost anything (if it's with noodles). Today it amuses me to see the outlandish prices put on bottles of jams and jellies, pickles and relishes, at markets, but what amuses me even more, is that they are grabbed up at almost any price. Perhaps city dwellers who long ago were transplanted themselves, have a once a year longing for the days that "were", in a mother's or grandmother's kitchen of yesteryear, days spent in a blackberry patch, somewhere just at the edge of a meadow, or on ones knees in a June field of wild strawberries. Whatever nostalgic episode inspires it, homemade preserves are still always in demand. I love that they are called "home" made. Don't you?

Well, I must scald my bottles, print my labels, and take that jelly off the stove, it smells done.

Did you know that New Brunswick is known far and wide, not only for her fiddleheads, but for her Lady Ashburns. I have no idea who she was, only that she was "always in a pickle".

As you perform your annual "labour of love", I pray that you will feel God smiling down on you, and music will fill your heart as you work together with the "Lord of the harvest", and enjoy your very own "Jam Session".

Torii - 2nd Shaped Balloon

Torii, with his big smile, is an angelic little Japanese Manga. His name was given from the Japanese arch that creates a separation between the physical world and the spiritual world. You will need to cross back through Torii to come back into the real world. So, when you will be flying with Torii, you will go from the ground to the sky and he will gently bring you back into the lovely arms of Mother Earth.

They are so excited to show you their second shaped balloon that will be attending the 34th annual Atlantic Balloon Fiesta! Johann Freve will be flying "Torii" across the skies of Sussex! Watch their facebook page for more exciting announcements!

Balloon Meister - Brian Bell

Brian started Ballooning in 1985 with Cross Canada balloons (Mike Cross) while living in Thornhill On. Sean Rice and Brian got their first ride with Ken Penfold over the Newmarket skies, their reward for crewing.

Bruce Blanchard and Brian started their first commercial contract experience with Pizza Pizza under Bell Flight Services. Years went by before John Walters and Brian concocted Sundance Balloons on his townhouse porch. He thinks the contract most people relate him to is Hawaiian Tropic Suncare, the Fish balloon, it was always a hit with the crowds from Albuquerque NM to Sussex NB. Sold his Balloon Co. in 1997 to fly full time in New Mexico. Currently resides in Brantford On, his occupation now is a Network administrator for multiple corp entities.

Brians flight experience covered over 3500 flights and countries around the world, he is not a regular on the festival tour any longer but keep current flying a 210 Lindstrand and a 105 Areostar locally with Skyward Balloons in Kitchener.

He would like to bring to Sussex an experience the pilots and spectators will appreciate and enjoy, provide a safe and fun atmosphere that all will look forward to in the future.

This is his 7th year as Balloon Meister for the Atlantic Balloon Fiesta in Sussex, N.B.

Salisbury Beautification Program September 2019

Community Garden Tour

The Salisbury Beautification Committee would like to thank everyone who participated in our first-ever community garden tour on July 27th. Visitors raved about the beautiful gardens and garden owners thoroughly enjoyed sharing gardening tips and information with those who attended. And of course, a huge thank you to the eight homes who opened their front and back yards to the public: Brenda Lewis, Connie and Pearl Colpitts, Barry and Marlene Colpitts, Kaye Crosse, Eric and Sharon Goggin, Casey and Darryl Boyce, Margie and David Moore, and Elsie and David Rolls.

Home Hardware and Trees Canada Grant Tree Planting

Salisbury Home Hardware, Tree Canada, and Salisbury Beautification Committee have partnered for the 3rd year in a successful quest to fund the planting of trees in Salisbury on National Tree Day. Salisbury Home Hardware has enjoyed great community support and Darien MacDonald states, "This is an excellent opportunity to give back in a real and tangible way to thank customers and the community for their support."

The planting of 12 shade trees will kick off the schoolyard and playground revitalization project at the Middle and High School. This is an important project for members of all ages of our community.

Community members are invited to come and join students during the tree planting.

Date: Wednesday, September 25th
Time: 1030 AM

Place: In the area between the school and the sports field.

Tree Dedication Event

The public is invited to our annual Tree Dedication Event on Sunday, September 8 at 1 p.m. Please join us at Salisbury Village Office for a short dedication ceremony which will be followed by the tree viewing and light refreshments. Everyone is welcome!

THANK YOU

My 1500 KM Journey

It is 1500 kms from Petitcodiac, NB to downtown Toronto, Ont. This journey started in 2017, and was a dream beyond reach for a long time. With the love and support of my family, friends, and a big push from this great community, we have made the journey together, Both there and BACK!

I want to send out a heartfelt thank you to everyone who went above and beyond to help support me in making it to Toronto, and receiving a lung transplant. There are too many names to list, but I have to express a very special thank you to a small group of people. Karen Hall-Middleton, Cindy Siddall, Cindy Keith, Kelly Mollins, Jamie Cromwell, Sylvie McCully, Nadine Barnett and also the many volunteers with the donations of articles for the silent auction. Also, special thanks to Mom and Dad.

Also, a big thank you to everyone who attended the Auction and Benefit for me, along with MC's Gerald Pearson and Harry Wheaton. I also want to take a moment to ask everyone to reflect on the importance of being a organ donor. Please let others live on through you.

I am looking forward to years to come with more adventures and spending time with my Special Granddaughter Madison Annabelle and family.

We can all get by, with a little help from our friends.

Much Love
Your Lady Barber

James "Jim" Munro
1935 - 2019

It is with sincere sadness we announce the passing of James Herbert Munro, "Jim", on August 10th at the Jordan LifeCare Centre, Riverglade NB, after a long journey with Alzheimer's.

Early in his career in finance Jim worked in Halifax, Middleton, and Dartmouth, NS. It was in Dartmouth that he met Carol and they began a life together, celebrating 61 years happily married on August 9th. From Dartmouth Jim accepted a position with Traders Finance that took him and Carol to St. John's, NL, which was a long way from home for this young couple. While there, Jim switched institutions and began working for the Bank of Nova Scotia. Over his 25 years with Scotiabank he served several branches including, Moncton, Saint John, and finally Petitcodiac, NB. Jim, Carol, and their 3 teenagers had become active in the community and so in 1977 Jim left the bank to remain in Petitcodiac, and with Carol's help launched Munro's Insurance as a family business where they worked until their retirement almost 20 years later.

Jim cared deeply about community and was committed to contributing toward its sustainability. He was instrumental in supporting the building of the Petitcodiac Arena, Petitcodiac Medical Centre, Kodiak Place Seniors apartments, and initiatives for Downtown Revitalization and served in several roles on their boards and committees once established. Elected as a Village councillor, he held clear ideas and worked hard on projects for the long term health, safety, and vitality of the village. Additionally Jim volunteered with the Minor Hockey League, St. John Ambulance, the Westmorland County Fair, and was regularly called upon to "Emcee" community events.

Beyond the municipal affairs, Jim truly enjoyed the challenges of provincial politics and was an active member of the Conservative Party of NB, and over the years worked on campaign teams for several MLA's and was treasurer for the Party for a term. He was also a devoted member of the Stephen's Masonic Lodge No. 37, and St. James United Church.

Family and close friends will smile to recall the laughter and fun over projects, card games, parties, campfires, and fishing at the cottage that Jim and Carol built in Portage Vale, where Jim dearly loved spending summers and weekends. After retirement, they took their fun on the road eventually settling their trailer in a park in Shediac, where they discovered another fun-loving community. Jim loved to fish and enjoyed a number of special fly-fishing trips with good friends, but perhaps his favourite of all were his trips to the rustic fishing camp he shared with his brothers and their families at Chisholm's Lake, in Guysborough County, NS.

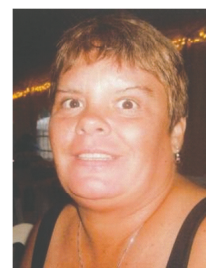

Jim is survived by, his beloved wife, Carol (Miller) and children Laura (Norman) Hunter, Sackville, NB, Sandra (Doug) Kelly, Petitcodiac, NB, and Bruce Munro, Anagance, NB. He will be missed by grandchildren: Ben & Natasha (Martin) Hunter, and their children Zachary and Avery; Hannah Hunter; Jarvis Kelly (Kendra MacDougall); and Jacey Kelly (Chad Gale). Born in New Glasgow, NS in Jan 1935, he was the son of Mary (Oliver) and Henry Munro. Jim will be fondly remembered by his sister, Matilda (Munro) McQuinn and his many cherished nieces, nephews, and in-laws. Besides his parents, he was predeceased by brothers Robert, Harry, Lloyd, Donald, Theodore, and Charles. The family would like to extend deep gratitude to the staff at the Jordan LifeCare Centre, for all the ways they have supported Jim and his family through his final days, with respect, care, and love.

BLAIR & GAYLE CROOKS

Inducted November 19, 2016
Builders Stockcar Racing

Home town Dartmouth, NS.

Blair began his Stockcar career in 1971 until 1973, by building the car and racing it, in 1974 he started building cars and selling them, and in '75 he incorporated his business "Crooks Racing". Over the next 2 decades Crooks Racing became a household name in motor sports.

Their son Gary worked at the shop until going to Charlotte, North Carolina to open his own race shop to build Late Model cars for NASCAR drivers.

Gayle was very active in the racing scene; in the early '70's at Atlantic Speedway she became track photographer and soon was doing the program. She worked behind the scenes with Blair helping to grow their business. In 1981 she became the promoter of Onslow Speedway, N.S, for Russell White for the next 3 or 4 years, very successfully. From 1990 thru '94 she managed Scotia Speedworld for Harry Poole and Cecil Vance. There were so many classes that they ran two days a week, Friday night and Sunday afternoon.

Village of Salisbury News

SALISBURY COMMUNITY DAYS 2019

This year's theme, "Salisbury Bandstand: Rockin' Back to the '50s!" was embraced by the community, making for a fun four days. Salisbury Village Council always supports the Community Days Committee and, along with staff, provides much help, as well as a grant to support the festivities. The Committee also receives generous support from local businesses and organizations who donate prizes, provide funding, and host events. A big part of the success of Salisbury Community Days stems from the help received from local residents, both past and present. Simply put, these events would not be possible without the collective dedicated effort of these volunteers, local businesses and organizations, Mayor, Council and Village staff. The organizing committee offers a sincere THANK YOU to all who helped in any way to make Salisbury Community Days a success once again!

Salisbury Primary Health Care Office

This Summer, New Brunswick's Horizon Health Network officially announced the opening of the Salisbury Primary Health Care Office. Located at Salisbury Pharmacy at 3154 Main Street and staffed by Nurse Practitioner Jaelle Poirier and Administrator Krista Ogilvie, the office is open two days each week with a mandate to serve residents of the region who are currently without access to a primary health care provider; that is, a family doctor or nurse practitioner. Potential patients must register in advance via Patient Connect NB, which can be accessed by phoning Tele-Care (811) or visiting Tele-Care online (https://www2.gnb.ca/content/gnb/en/departments/health/Hospital-Services/content/Patient\_Connect\_NB.html). Patients are seen on Mondays and Fridays between the hours of 9:00am and 4:00pm by appointment only, while Tuesdays will be administration days. There will be no after-hours or walk-in appointments offered. In a press release, Kathleen Buchanan, Horizon's Director of Primary Health Care for the Moncton Area, says patients who have registered with Patient Connect NB "are being contacted and the reception has been positive." Horizon Vice President Community Jean Daigle notes that "none of this would have been possible without the collaboration from the Village of Salisbury." Nurse practitioners are trained to diagnose and treat common acute health problems, monitor and manage chronic diseases, and prescribe diagnostic testing, medications, and other treatments.
