From the Editor

I see that many people are really putting out lots of Christmas decorations this year. The lights will really help to lift peoples spirits.

The hours at the Maritime Motorsports are being cut for the winter months so will be closed Mondays starting the first of December.

Congratulations to the deer hunters that were lucky enough to get their deer! Remember to follow the Covid rules when having Christmas and New Years Parties.

Be sure to take in the Festival of Lights on December 3rd from 6 - 8pm in Petitcodiac.

Have a Merry Christmas, Happy New Year and a Great Holiday!

Christmas Cards

The Elgin Women's Institute and friends gathered at The Hall in November to make Holiday Greeting Cards. The class was full and the day was lovely as we chatted, learned a few new card making techniques and produced cards to send to family and friends this Christmas season.

The history of making and sending Christmas cards goes back to a time around 1843 when a gentleman from England decided that he was becoming stressed because he did not have enough time to answer all his many letters. (Sound familiar?)

It was considered impolite not to answer your mail so Mr. Henry Cole had to come up with a way to respond to his growing pile of unanswered mail. "Cole hit on an ingenious idea. He approached an artist friend, J. C. Horsley, and asked him to design an idea that Cole had sketched out in his mind." Soon he had a thousand copies printed including the phrase "A Merry Christmas and A Happy

New Year to You." There you have it - the first Christmas card.

It took awhile to catch on but soon people recognized the idea as one in which to save time. Today we also include not just Christmas and New Year's but Hanukkah, Kwanzaa and the Winter Solstice.

How is your holiday card writing coming along? Have you purchased your cards yet? There are just so many beautiful cards to choose from that it is difficult to decide. Then there are the special cards for loved ones that require just a little more thought in choosing the right one to say what you want them to know. Perhaps you are busy making your own cards.

The members and friends of the Elgin Women's Institute would like to extend wishes for a wonderful, safe and healthy holiday season with the hope that 2022 brings special blessings to each and every one.

For Home and Country!

Happy Holidays

Dear readers,

We, the Elgin Eco Association has been very fortunate that we are able to write a monthly article for the news and views.

Every month we have to come up with an article telling the readers what we have done, want to do and what we are currently doing. We are a group of volunteers, a group that will always need new volunteers to continue with what we have build over the last 18 years. Today I will write about the various aspects per paragraph.

Mapleton Acadian Nature Preserve

This Preserve is owned by the Nature Trust. The Elgin Eco Association raised a considerable amount of money to buy it, and the Nature Trust took over and with that the liabilities. The EEA is its steward. We take care of cleaning the garbage bin, walk the trail for fallen trees, maintains the Nature Preserve. The Preserve is a popular hiking walking destination for many. On weekends the parking lot can be very busy, no matter the time of the year. Every season has its own beauty. Right now you can clearly see the places where renewal of the forest takes place. Many young fir trees are growing where old ones have fallen. Some benches will be installed in the near future.

We also had a counter to see the number of people walking the trail. This piece of equipment has been vandalized and no longer working. Another act of vandalism is the disappearance of the trail markers. This can cause people to get lost. We have now resorted to painting a blue mark on the trees. It is sad to see this type of unnecessary destruction. Please take care of our public places.

The Elgin Eco Park

We are now at $15,000 mark for money raised for our new playground equipment, we have secured money from other sources. We are positive of the installation of the playground equipment in the spring.

When the weather turns to a considerable colder temperature, the ice rink will be installed for use over the winter months. We are also currently building a special three sided shelter for changing your skates.

Our heritage garden will be dormant until spring.

Mountain bike trails

Over the summer months a lot of work has been done on the trails on crown land. They have proven to be very popular. You can see many bikers parked in the park parking lot to go biking in Elgin. These bike trails are first-class and a joy to bike or hike.

All this work is not done by gnomes, but local volunteers. We are hoping that we will add to our volunteer list with so many new and young people residing in Elgin.

Our website is eeanb.com. or our Facebook page Elgin Eco Association.

I would like to wish everyone a Very Happy Holidays from the Elgin ECO Association

What's Wrong with Hearing Aids

Peter Drucker, the management theorist, who wore hearing aids later in life, famously remarked, "The most important thing in communication is hearing what isn't said." The hearing aid industry would be wise to listen in. For all the big noise about what can be heard when people with hearing impairment are fitted with aids, is an important message being missed?

Hearing aids, in general, make life better for people with mild to severe hearing loss. But has the development of ever smaller technology made it needlessly difficult for people to enjoy the benefits? Does it seem as though the aids are designed to hide, for vanity's sake, or worse, as if in shame, a hearing disability?

The focus should be on ease of functionality, not the gimmicks that escalate the price for hearing aids beyond the range of reasonable.

Manufacturing a hearing aid costs a few hundred dollars, but a single aid can retail at two thousand dollars each, with most people needing two of them. Companies market products based on attractive warranties, battery life, and connectivity with TV or phone.

But use of hearing aids is often a hard sell, and the prices and high-tech complexities are not the only deterrents.

A study in the International Journal of Audiology notes, "For a hearing-impaired person, a hearing aid is often beneficial, but noise and annoying sounds can result in non-use." The study found that 91% of participants experienced annoying sounds daily when using hearing aids. Researchers concluded that "improved clinical fitting routines" may be the solution.

For some people, perhaps. But there is something wrong when the hearing aid industry ignores challenges people face as soon as they leave hearing clinics.

Why, for example, must hearing aids be so ridiculously small? They are so small, in fact, that any senior with even minor arthritis in the hands struggles to grasp and place the teeny technology in the ear canal, while nudging itsy speaker and retention wires into place, and fumbling to find on and off buttons and volume controls no bigger than a tiddle. Compounding the problem, given that seniors have ears that have grown larger with long life, these little bits readily fall out. How much anxiety goes into the search for expensive aids that easily get lost?

Experts say stigma is associated with hearing impairment, making people hesitant to admit the problem. But this stigma stems from outdated societal perceptions that there is something bad about getting older and having hearing loss. It's time for this to end.

Let's have hearing aids come to market that are better suited to people who could care less what their ears look like so long as they can hear the conversation. Make these new devices so big that they define new style, offer "bling", or even, gasp, involve piercings to hold them in place!

Hearing well has important health benefits too. People who suffer from hearing loss tend to develop problems with balance, leading to falls. The absence of mental stimulation from sound reception in the brain can also increase the risk of dementia. And the isolation that often ensues with the development of hearing impairment, especially later in life, is not good for health.

Take the advice of Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi, a psychologist best known for his work on happiness, who died last month at the age of 87. He said, "It's not the hearing that improves life, but the listening."

James the Small Engine Guy

I have always loved fixing things. I can fix, build or create just about anything.

After a career in the airlines industry I found myself unemployed and decided to go back to school to study small engine repair. Subsequently, James the Small Engine Guy was born 20 years ago this month. I am grateful for the residents of Riverview, and the small businesses that have consistently used my services. Loyal customers all over Southeast NB have been critical to my success and I value them all.

I have also always loved the outdoors. When the opportunity arose to move, I took it. We are now operating from Montegale. My son, Mackenzie, a graduate of NBCC Motorcycle Repair, has partnered up with me and we have a much bigger shop to service your tools and toys.

We offer pickup and delivery locally as well as Moncton and Riverview. We are a certified King Canada Service Center, if you have challenges with your King generators or power tools, and we service equipment for companies like Riverview Lawns and Gardens, Southeastern Mutual, Spencer's Nursing Home and many more. We are a CertainTeed Service Center repairing insulation blowers for Home Hardware. For residential customers we repair power saws, lawn tractors, tillers, ATV's, generators, Side-by-Sides, snowblowers, snowmobiles, boat motors, power trowels and anything else with a motor.

You can find us in the shop Monday thru Friday 9-5. If we are not here on the weekends, you will probably find us on the trails, camping down towards Fundy or boating on Cocagne Bay!

THE SNOW SHOVELERS

JACKIE AND Bobby, who were next door neighbors, were given the task of shoveling the snow off the sidewalks in front of their homes.

It would be more fun to have a snowball fight," said Jackie.

"Or to build an igloo," said Bobby.

"Well," said Jackie, "perhaps if we raced, we could get through in time to do both."

"That is a good idea," agreed Bobby. "You start at the end of your walk, and I'll start at the end of mine, and we'll race toward each other."

Bobby and Jackie ran with their shovels to opposite ends of their sidewalks. In no time at all, the snow was flying as the boys tossed big scoops of it to clear the sidewalk.

In ten minutes, Jackie shouted, "Toot, toot! Make way for the steam shovel!"

"Here comes another from this direction!" said Bobby, and the shoveling was done .

"That was fun," said Jackie.

"Let's go down the street and see if we can get more snow shoveling to do," said Bobby.

Before the morning was over, the boys had shoveled five sidewalks besides their own, and had money jingling in their pockets.

"I hope it snows again soon," said Jackie.

Comedy at Large

A man goes to his local hardware store to purchase a round nose shovel. When he comes to the check out counter to pay, the clerk, who has a great sense of humor says to the customer .... Hi there Fred....are you burying the battle-ax today? Not to be outdone, the man replies -----I already dug out the grave with my post hole digger. This shovel is just to help me fill it back in! Also not to be outdone, the clerk reaches on the counter for a scrap piece of paper and with a marker, writes something on it then passes it to Fred. On the paper are 3 large letters R.I.P. and he says to the man put this on top of the pile!

A university student who was in the process of writing his thesis on the proper use of the semi-colon has had his hopes dashed! Altogether now ....GROAN

A scientist who was writing a study on the effects of the sun's rays on the human body at sunset, was asked why he didn't do a study on the effects of the sun's rays on the human body at sunrise. His answer ... the thought never dawned on me.

A tourist world traveller tells the story of his visit to a large castle in France that was thought to be over 400 years old. The castle had been refurbished with modern infrastructure ....electricity, plumbing and so on. Kings and Queens had resided here over the years. On the second floor, where the Royal suite was located, he noticed that in one of the rest rooms the toilet was made of sterling silver! He comments ....this had all the makings of a Royal flush with no connection to a card game.

From the Desk of Your MLA

Ross Wetmore, Gagetown - Petitcodiac

Fall transitions into winter, the leaves are mostly gone, it's dark after supper and cold weather has made its presence known.

Wood is split and ranked, skis are waxed, snow machines are serviced and twitching to go, ice rinks are hubs of activity.

Those things we put away last spring are seeing the light of day once more.

Things we put away before seeing to their needs, still have the same needs.

Take for instance a pair of good wool socks with the heel gone out of one.

One might have *darned the heel last spring (or had someone darn it for you) but the needs of springtime pushed the needs of wintertime aside.

Life works like that.

Same goes for government.

Take for instance local government and local governance in New Brunswick.

Over many years and over several governments, the needs of governing saw that local governance got put away and left in the drawer with the heel out of it. Some would argue both heels and maybe a toe or two.

The point is, the needs of the people of New Brunswick are not and cannot be met without significant action.

Earlier this month our government brought forward the white paper on local governance reform.

I would encourage you to examine the result of a long process of consultation with people and communities around the province. It will take some time.

<https://www2.gnb.ca/content/dam/gnb/Corporate/Promo/localgovreform/docs/WhitePaper-EN-Web.pdf>

Also this month our government presented a plan for health care in our province, over the course of the next five years, with specific action items in the next two years. This is another document I hope you will find time to examine.

<https://www2.gnb.ca/content/dam/gnb/Departments/h-s/pdf/Stabilizing-health-care.pdf>

I understand how time is increasingly hard to come by these days.

Christmas time's a comin'...as the old song goes.

Crowds of people, lights and decorations and the Carols and music.

You can see it and hear it all around you.

The true magic of Christmas happens when you can feel it all around you.

When you can feel the peace, the goodwill and the love.

How might we play a role in creating the feeling?

Not to get all preachy or anything, but perhaps peace through patience, goodwill through understanding and love through kindness.

The people who are at the front lines of everything are counting on us.

*Darning refers to the age old art of repairing socks employing needle, thread and a light-bulb or darning implement. Not the act of darning people. Anyone can do that.

Wishing everyone a safe, healthy and a very Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

- Exciting News!

In February, Canadian Tire Corporation announced an additional $12 million commitment to Jumpstart's Sport Relief Fund to help sport and recreation organizations build back sport and play in Canada.

Jumpstart conducted a State of Sport study via Ipsos which revealed the pandemic has not only impacted current access to sport and play but has real long-term effects as well. Petitcodiac and District Figure Skating Club and the communities it serves have experienced the impact of the pandemic first-hand. We recently received confirmation that we will be provided with grant support through the last round of Jumpstart's Sport Relief Fund. In 2021, Jumpstart has now disbursed funding to more than 1,200 organizations across Canada through Jumpstart's Sport Relief Fund. We are beyond grateful to receive this news and know the positive impact it will have on sport and recreation organizations, and ultimately, on kids across the country.

With Jumpstart's support, we will be able to continue to provide skaters in our community access to learn to skate with Skate Canada's programs and our amazing Skate Canada coaches.

If you missed registration and your child wants to learn to skate, they can start at any time. Skaters are all evaluated individually and progress at their own speed, so a skater can start at any time. We pro-rate the registration so that you only pay for what is remaining in the season.

And finally in other exciting news, we are currently starting to plan our ice show. Our skaters were very disappointed that we have not been able to have one for the last two years and are looking forward to having one. Stay tuned for more details!

I love to shop for Christmas
It takes me time you see
To find that perfect something
For someone just from me
I love to bake for Christmas
Some shortbread, pies and cake
I scan the "Barbour's" cookbook
Oh what a feast I'll make
I love my house at Christmas
The sparkling lights that glow
The wreath of pine and holly berries
Stockings in a row
I love the tree at Christmas
Old ornaments that hung
Each bygone year at Christmastime
When all the kids were young
I love the Christmas greeting cards
That come, across the miles
The home-made ones
and sparkling ones
Their wishes bring a smile
I love the Chrstmas concerts
The carollers and such
The rosy cheeks of minstrels
Whose visits mean so much
When they invade my Christmas house
And share my cup of cheer
For it would not be Christmas
If these loved ones were not here

Petitcodiac Area Garden Club

The holiday season is upon us and the coming days will fly by. Our outdoor gardens have all settled in for a long winter's nap, but for some, inside is awash with plants. This is the season of Christmas Cacti and Poinsettias. Growing up, Christmas Cacti were pink, and Poinsettias were red. Now we see a rainbow of colors available for both and they bring much-welcomed color to our homes during the winter months. Earlier this year, some garden club members were talking about the various kinds of Holiday Cacti, and this is when some of us, including yours truly, learned that not all cacti are Christmas cacti. We have included a picture of three Holiday Cacti - Easter, Thanksgiving, and Christmas - as an aid for identifying any you have in your home. I found the stems to be the most telling, however, the blooms are also unique.

The great thing about all three of these plants, is they thrive with the same care. They are easy to grow, however, they do have their preferences. Here are a few tips I have gleaned online:

- Cacti require sandy, well-drained soil and don't like extremes of being too dry or too wet. Water once they are dry. They also like a bit of extra nourishment, so feed them 20-20-20 or 10-10-10 plant food diluted with water to 50% strength, every 2-3 weeks.
- This is a plant that likes to be root-bound, so choosing a small pot is best and repot only once the pot is completely filled. When repotting, choose the next size up.
- Sitting on a tray of rocks, with water just below the top of the rocks, provides them with humidity that they appreciate.
- Enjoying bright light is their favorite pastime, but they will burn in direct sunlight. You may need to move them around until you find their happy spot.
- To bloom, they need long cool, dark nights. That includes having no light from lamps. To promote blooming you can move them into a darker room or away from a heat source to ensure they get 13-15 hours of darkness. Once they have begun to bloom, you can return them to their happy place to be enjoyed by everyone.

Members of the Petitcodiac & Area Gardening Club have begun planning for 2022, which will see even more great things happen, including an update on the Communities in Bloom project. For those who still have keys to the Community Garden, please be sure to drop these by the Village Office and receive your refund. Keys will once again be available at the beginning of the gardening season. There is room to expand the number of plots, so keep that in mind for the coming year. If you are online, please stay in touch through the Petitcodiac and Area Garden Club Facebook group.

As we bid 2021 farewell, we would like to thank the Village of Petitcodiac, those who donated plants for our annual sale, others who opened their gardens for our Annual Garden Tour, community partners, local businesses, and all of our Volunteers who all play important roles in the continued success of the Petitcodiac and Area Garden Club - whether big or small, together we are making a difference in our community. ## Peace on Earth

by Gloria Scribner

Perhaps not in a very long while have the words "Peace on Earth" seemed so hollow and unlikely than at this particular Christmas season; Not to mention "Good Will to Men".

With so much chaos riding the coat-tails of covid-19 it's difficult to imagine a world where no frustrations live, or wars (of words or guns) do not prevail to threaten.

Those age-old words of the angelic hosts on that night long ago above the hills of Bethlehem still break the silence of the night (short-lived though it might be) with the continuing quest for love, and hope, and what joys they offer the searcher.

The Lord's words echo still down the corridors of time: "Seek and you will find".

But are we really searching today? Or has our journey been waylaid by despondency? And our vision blurred by governmental bureaucracy? Do we really expect peace or have we resigned ourselves to "whatever".

I'm wondering what excitement and determination drove those ancient Magi to set out on a journey into the unknown, guided only by a star and inspired by dogged determination to offer gifts to a newborn infant King prophesied by the sage writings in an old book.

I wonder about a gentle carpenter, a pregnant teen-age girl, and a company of weary travellers walking mile after mile along dusty roads just to pay their taxes and respond to a census. I grumble about having to fill out mine on paper and mail it back, and many of today's folk became enraged when receiving their tax bills. Perhaps we should spend a year living under Caesar.

I ponder the maternity of one who gave birth that "Holy" night - her caregiver Joseph quietly at her side in a barn. No nurses in the wings grumbling over working conditions and unfair wages just "Angel" wings hovering over a hillside, anxious to proclaim the arrival of the "Son of God" as humble shepherds witnessed the grandeur of the Heavenly "Host" right over the fields of midnight while halos shone and terrestrial voices penetrated the dark hills and illuminated the hearts and minds of mesmerized witnesses.

I wonder about the "child of peace" who snuggled close to his mother's breast while behind them rang out the infant wails of the "massacre of the innocents" as Harod, in his insane jealous rage, madly strived to eliminate an imagined threat to his dominance. (If he only knew!)

As I look back and ponder these things and times I realize "Peace on Earth" is possible only for those who are willing to make the journey. It's not over desert sands, rocky hills, nor marble halls, but into the hearts minds and souls of those willing to pay the toll with faith, love, and trust, not in the paths of stars but the one who made them; Not in governments, but the God who ordained them; Not in road-maps to securities, but in the word of God that leaves us with the greatest assurance any King ever offered his subjects. "Behold I am with you always".

How many kings have died for their subjects? How many kings have whispered words of love to the oppressed, the confused, the hungry, and the lonely.

As we share His love in ways He taught us, we find willing hands, loving hearts and sharing souls encouraging, feeding, holding, comforting and housing the victims of poverty, loneliness, drug addiction, sickness, and each in their own way become His partners as we hear over and over on our journey, "Do unto others as you would have them do to you", and a warmth of peace comes over us like a flood as we remember His words "I have overcome the world", "Don't be afraid".

This is the peace we feel as we celebrate the greatest birthday of all time, that of our King.

We think of you in silence.
We often speak your name.
Now all we have are memories.
And your picture in a frame.
Your memory is our keepsake.
With which we'll never part.

MEMORIAL

In memory of my brother
William "Billy" MacLeod.

Today is full of memories,
Of a brother laid to rest,
And every single one of them,
Is filled with happiness.
For you were someone special,
Always such a joy to know,
And there was so much pain,
When it was time to let you go.
That's why this special message,
Is sent to Heaven above,
For the angels to take care of you,
And give you all my love.
Written by Elton MacLeod

"I came just to take you riding in the sweet, cool evening air.

Not so sure I really should - but did, and did not care.

As now the time is past and gone,
the memory fades away.

The warmth felt with your presence as we rode through night and day.

Be for yourself, for no one else,
do what you feel is right.

For if I had one gentle wish,
we'd ride close again tonight

A Letter From Heaven

I'm writing this from Heaven
Where I dwell with God above
Where there's no more tears or sadness
There's just eternal love.

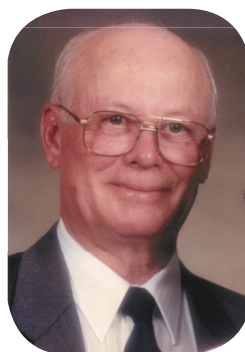

When you are walking down the street
And you've got me on your mind
I'm walking in your footsteps
Only half a step behind.

And when you feel that gentle breeze
Or the wind upon your face
That's me giving you a great big hug
Or just a soft embrace.

And when it's time for you to go
From that body to be free
Remember you're not going
You are coming here to me.

It is not like they ever left. The cardinal that lands on an evergreen branch and creates an explosion of soft snow is a Canadian sight to behold.

As our migratory bird friends (and some human friends) go south, we are left with each other. And how delightful is that! This is bird feeding season and now is a great time of year to clean and refill your birdfeeders, acquire a birdbath heater, and take this last planting opportunity to put some bird friendly plants in your garden.

Let us start with your garden.

1. Don't cut down your ornamental grasses and herbaceous perennials. The seed heads that stand are a buffet counter for birds, especially when the snow covers the ground and access to earth-bound seeds is no longer an option.

2. Plant fruit producing Mountain Ash, native American cranberry, Serviceberry, Saskatoon berry and crab-apple trees. Many birds find fruiting plants most enticing in the winter, when they are looking for quick energy and the fruit has matured and softened.

3. Birds need shelter. Especially during the winter months when a cold wind blows. Their favourite protection are native black and white cedars. Birds find comfort there, forage the seeds in winter and will often nest in cedars some spring. Any evergreen provides protection for birds come winter. The cardinal that finds refuge in a spruce tree is just one example. Pine, fir, and junipers can all do the trick.

4. Birds Canada has a very helpful website that addresses the issue nicely by allocating "Bird Garden Zones" across the country. The Bird Garden Zone map carves Canada into 22 zones. Extensive lists of plants are offered for each zone, all native, that are known to attract birds. Click the plant that appeals to you and learn cultural information about the size, shape and fruiting features of the plant, its growing zone limitations, preferred soil type and more. It is handy, quick, and fun. <https://www.birdscanada.org/you-can-help/bird-gardens/>

We note that not all plants listed are easy to find at a garden-variety retailer. You may have to search online for suppliers of, say, striped maple or fleshy hawthorn. Another fun winter project if you are planning on spring planting. Feeding the birds, with an eye to helping them get through the winter in good health, requires a little planning and thought. Our top tips:

a. Clean bird feeders every couple of weeks with a mild solution of soap. Disease manifests itself in damp, rotting seeds.

b. Birds need water. Open water of any kind, providing it is clean, attracts a lot of birds. Ben leaves a bubbler in his pond all winter. Birds hop up to the edge of the ice and take a drink all winter long. If you have a bird bath, use a bird bath heater to keep the water open.

c. Project Feeder Watch is a citizen-science based method of counting birds and registering them in the Birds Canada database. The "Watch" started November 13th and runs all winter, so there is lots of time for you to sign up at www.birdscanada.org.

d. Host a birdathon. Bring some friends together in your neighbourhood to watch, identify and study birds. Have fun, share experiences and knowledge, and watch your winter melt away in birding activity.

Village of Salisbury News

The Mayor, Council, and staff of the Village of Salisbury wish you a joyous Holiday Season, and health and happiness in 2022. Stay safe!

HOLIDAY OFFICE HOURS

The Salisbury Village Office will be closed at noon on Friday, December 24th and will reopen on Wednesday, December 29th at 8:30am for the Christmas holidays; and will close at noon on Friday, December 31st for New Year's Eve and will reopen on the morning of Tuesday, January 4th following the New Year's Day holiday.

CHRISTMAS TREE DISPOSAL

Residents who wish to drop-off their Christmas tree can do so at the following site:

Village of Salisbury Wastewater Treatment Facility, 47 Government Road (in designated area).

Tree bags, tinsel, ornaments, nails, tree skirts, string, stands, etc., must be removed before disposal.

Christmas wreaths will NOT be accepted.

2022 BUDGET AND TAX RATE

Salisbury Village Council completed its 2022 budget deliberations on November 8th and passed its 2022 General Operating Fund and Utility Operating Fund motions on November 15th.

Council is pleased to have been able to hold the property tax rate steady at $1.0442 (per $100 of assessment) given the financial pressures of rising RCMP costs and increased rates for WorksafeNB, insurance and garbage collection, among others.

This is compounded by the fact that despite growth of 7.07% in the Village of Salisbury's tax base, the New Brunswick Government has decreased by $102,051 its 2022 Community Funding and Equalization Grant (formerly known as the Unconditional Grant) to the Village of Salisbury.

REMINDER - PAYMENT DUE FOR OVERDUE 2021 SEWER BILLS

The sewer rate for 2021 in the Village of Salisbury is $305.00 per unit.

Interest working out to 2% per month is added to all overdue sewer accounts, calculated from the billing date in January.

Interest was added in March, April, May, June, July, August, September, October and November, and will continue on a monthly basis for the rest of the year.

The 2022 sewer rate for Salisbury will increase to $325 per unit.

It must be noted that it has been seven years since the last increase in sewer rates in Salisbury.

2021 VILLAGE OF SALISBURY DOG TAGS

Due to late fees going into effect back on April 1st, dog registrations in the Village of Salisbury currently cost $25.00 for spayed or neutered dogs; or $45.00 if not spayed or neutered (however, for new dogs/puppies, tags are $15 cheaper).

In order to buy a dog tag, you MUST prove up-to-date vaccinations by way of an official veterinarian receipt. Salisbury Animal Control is provided by New Brunswick SPCA, who can be reached at 1-877-722-1522.

Meantime, 2022 Dog Tags will go on sale starting January 1st, 2022.

HAZARDOUS WASTE DROP-OFF / MOBILE ECO-DEPOT

Southeast ECO360's Mobile Eco-Depot will be in Salisbury for two days in early January - on Wednesday, January 19th and Thursday, January 20th from noon-8:00pm both days.

They will be set up in the parking lot of the Salisbury Baptist Church at 3128 Main Street.

For more information, visit them online at www.eco360.ca.

COVID-19 - VILLAGE DEPARTMENTS OPEN, BUT MASKS REQUIRED AND ACCESS RESTRICTED

All Village of Salisbury municipal departments remain open for business.

However, due to recent developments in the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic in New Brunswick, access restrictions and physical distancing requirements have been reinstated within municipal buildings.

Also, as per direction from NB Public Health, visitors at all municipal departments including the main Village Office are once again mandated to wear a facemask indoors.

As for attendance at gatherings or meetings held by the Village of Salisbury or its municipal departments, guests must be prepared to provide proof of vaccination in order to attend these meetings.

It must be noted that the Village of Salisbury COVID-19 Operational Plan is subject to change should the Provincial government announce any further changes to its coronavirus recovery plan status.

Salisbury Petitcodiac Minor Basketball Association

would like to thank everyone who supported our players with our Fall raffle.

Here is the list of our lucky winners:

$250	Lois Landry
$500	Denny Smith
$1000	Lacy Reade

BY-LAW NO. 23 - A BY-LAW TO REGULATE TRAFFIC

For the purpose of snow removal, no person shall stand or park a vehicle on any highway within the Village of Salisbury between the hours of 1:00 am and 7:00 am from the first day of November in any year until the first day of April in the following year.

BE 72-HOURS READY!

Winter weather has arrived, and it's important that all of us be prepared in the event of storms that result in power outages.

In partnership with the New Brunswick Emergency Measures Organization, the Village of Salisbury urges its residents to be 72-hours ready; that is, be prepared to manage on our own for at least 72 hours while NB Power works to restore service.

Have an emergency plan and a storm kit covering the needs of your family (including pets!).

The Village of Salisbury diligently monitors weather conditions, keeping in close communication with NB EMO in preparation to respond in times of emergency.

With the environment changing, it should be noted that storms are increasing in intensity, if not frequency, further underscoring the importance of being 72-hours ready!
