RCMP's Online Crime Reporting (OCR)

gives New Brunswickers (in RCMP areas of jurisdiction), an alternate way to report certain non-emergency crimes without calling the police, or visiting a detachment.

Online crime reporting is not meant to replace other forms of reporting crime. Always call 911 in an emergency. RCMP non-emergency line is 1-888-506-RCMP.

How does it work?

- Visit OCR website at <https://ocre-sielc.rcmp-grc.gc.ca/en>
- The easy-to-use website guides you through a series of questions to give police information about your incident.
- At the end, you will receive an email confirmation with an incident number and a report, which can be used for insurance purposes. The entire report takes about 15 minutes.
- All reports submitted via OCR are reviewed by the RCMP, and are entered into the RCMP's record management system.
- A police officer will contact you if more information is required.

Why should I use OCR?

- Available 24/7
- No need to visit or call a detachment
- Provides report that can be used for insurance purposes
- Contributes important information to assess crime trends

What can I report using OCR?

- Mischief/damage to property under $5,000
- Theft under $5,000
- Lost property

Do NOT use OCR if:

- Stolen property includes firearms, credit cards, or personal identification (e.g. driver's licence or passport).
- The value of stolen or damaged property exceeds $5,000.
- There are witnesses or video evidence of the crime.

Incidents that do not meet the criteria for OCR are directed to the RCMP's non-emergency line 1-888-506-RCMP.

Call police or 911 immediately if the incident is still in progress, or if it is an emergency.

Filing a false police report is a crime.

HONEST - RELIABLE - HARD WORKING

August Morning

By Gloria Scribner

The sunlight filters through the bedroom curtains, stirring in their "dawn yawn". I hear the clunk, clunk, clunk of the harvester as the machine passes through the back 40, circling over the hay field, undoubtedly sending the little mice and moles to their holes. I whisper "Good Morning, Lord" not "Good Lord, Morning!" You see, my heart is overwhelmed at the knowledge that He's given me another day to be welcomed to His beautiful world. The old song "Oh What a Beautiful Morning" comes to mind, and I giggle at the thought of an elephant's eye being high as corn - is that with his head down or up? Oh well! I do a quick scan of the wall to make sure no spiders are up and about. I see lots of floating webs outside, sailing like miniature balloons over the lawn. So long as they stay "outside". I check my slippers and make certain they are empty (not of feet). One morning I started to put my foot in one and saw a miniature tail sticking out. The cat "Sim" had bequeathed me a mouse, albeit in semi-demise. I scuff along down to the kitchen and turn on the coffee pot.

I open the door for the cat, sit and ponder the meaning of life while I sip my java. I use a mug - a bit ironic for a woman who has 140 teacups - Oh Lord! Deliver me from this curse the kids call "too many dishes!" Please send some needy folks who need China cups and saucers! Help. So much for my 5 second guilt trip! I tell myself that I will leave them to my grand-children in my will, so with 80 odd grand-kids and great grand-kids (none of them are actually "Odd". I remind the Lord that I can leave them each "2". Thank you Lord for the blessing of a full quiver. Now, what to do with the wall to wall antique dishes - reminders of God's bounty? Or is that just dirty dishes?

Gotta get my day into living. How can I be of use to you today Lord? My phone is ringing, better answer it. "Maybe someone needs some dishes". Nope? Just Flo' yelling in my ear, "Good morning, did I wake you up? Did you have your coffee yet? We'll have a good day" Followed by the weather report - "Click!"

I spread some butter on my toast, sprinkle some salt and pepper on it, and ask a blessing, between the caffeine, sugar, and salt, I need all the help I can get, but then I didn't use cream or jam. I'm trying to keep my body healthy Lord. I didn't eat the crusts. I waited 80 years to refuse to eat my crusts and no one can make me eat them. I take them to the verandah and toss them. Life is so beautiful in the morning in August, that is - until the Amazon guy zooms up the lane and catches me in my nightgown. Oh well! I made his day - He threw the parcel at me and disappeared back down the lane!

I head back into the house and come to a halt. A giant spider, wharf or wolf? Who cares, he's black and huge and scary. I shriek to my grand-daughter, she's 18, to come rescue me. She with a haughty air of "sure, where is it" takes one look, runs back into the house and slams the door. Not to worry, my cousin Elsie drives up and saves the day. All she needed was a chair and a shoe (looked like a lion tamer). Thank you girl! She is so brave! Now I can go into my house again and Julie can come out! August mornings are so beautiful!

From the Desk of Your MLA Ross Wetmore, Gagetown - Petitcodiac

Summer 2023 has made its mark on New Brunswick and New Brunswickers.

With scorching heat, withering humidity, forest fires, torrential rains and local floods, this summer has already surpassed recent years for challenging weather and natural events.

While we can't prevent rain, we can prevent forest fires, at least some of them.

The Department of Natural Resources provides a daily Forest Fire Watch, advising conditions around our province, including a provincial map outlining where and when burning is permitted.

You may find the map on the Government of New Brunswick website https://www2.gnb.ca/content/gnb/en/news/public\_alerts/forest\_fire\_watch.html or on Twitter @nbforestfires. Let's do everything we can to support our forest firefighters during this, an already busy forest fire season.

A wise, old farmer once said- everything's a tradeoff. We have had an active and always unwelcome forest fire season just as we have had, from all reports, a good growing season for gardeners. I'm hoping you are among the group celebrating success, should you be growing some fresh vegetables.

I took a moment to visit the Petitcodiac Garden Club Facebook page to check on their progress this garden season. They have endured their share of weather challenges, with the wet weather delaying tilling on some of their ground. The dedicated volunteers press on, undeterred by Mother Nature's unpredictability. It won't be long before folks are enjoying the fruits of their labour.

Last year, and I believe every year at about this time, I put out a request for our local gardeners to share their excess vegetables with folks who don't have the opportunity to grow their own garden.

There is nothing like the gift of fresh beans, tomatoes or other garden treasures, to brighten up someone's day, not to mention their meals. The same holds true for a gift from a flower garden. Feeding the heart and soul (and belly) of another through a gift of kindness has a way of bringing just as much joy to the giver, by and by.

In closing, I'm hoping you have had a fun, relaxing and successful summer of 2023 so far.

As always, congratulations and thank you to those volunteers who are giving of their times and talents to make summer happenings memorable.

Before you know it, we'll be talking about the fall fairs...

Comedy at Large

by Laurie Blanchard Salisbury, NB

Let's talk cars of the 70's. A lady was telling me that they once owned a 1975 Ford LTD. She went on to say that it was a fairly reliable car, however her husband was not a very good driver and had experienced a couple of fender benders along with a few scratches in the paint and dents in the bumpers acquired from his maneuvering in parking lots. In her mind, that LTD logo stood for ...Limit the damage ! Appropriate terminology indeed !

Let's talk typos. This ad was seen in an automotive magazine....1956 Lincoln Continental Mark 11. Totally restored and in like new condition. Price , $ 75,000.00 firm. I can only assume that the word should have been price, but now wait a minute, pirce, which sounds like purse, could indicate that if the buyer was a lady, she had better have a large purse to hold all of that money ! That's the way I see it.

At the bottom of our porch, there is a piece of painted plywood that comes up about 2 feet, leaving an edge of about ½ inch at the top. Quite often, as I sit there on our swing enjoying my coffee, I've noticed ants travelling back and forth on that narrow edge. When travelling in opposite directions and they meet, they bump head on at full speed ! I'm thinking....do they get concussions ? Should they be wearing helmets? Just wondering. It sure beats sitting there watching the lawn grow.

Is it Real?

by Dave McPherson Pastor of New Canaan Baptist church, route 112

Recently, while my wife and two commandments."

I were on an outing, we were sitting out on a deck talking car stuff with the group we were with. (It was a car club, so you've got to expect that.) But then religion briefly came up and one person said her church leader had said that even if heaven wasn't real, it was worth the one hour a week investment to go to church "just in case" it was true.

Answers like that make me sad. It is because the people have missed the point entirely. True Christianity is not about following the rules "just in case" there is a God. True Christianity is falling heads over heels in Love with God because of what Jesus did to save us. We keep adding rules to it and try to earn our way into Heaven, but the entrance fee has already been paid.

God wants a relationship with us. And what does he want from us? Matthew 22:37-40 says: "Jesus replied: 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.' This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: 'Love your neighbor as yourself.' All the Law and the Prophets hang on these

It is all about Love and a relationship. A real relationship cannot happen if you just spend an hour a week with a person. It will become cold after a while. A real relationship grows as you spend time together. A couple of years ago my wife and I bought a 2-seat car, just for us. Since then, we have had some great road trips and some great conversations going down the highways and making wonderful memories.

We also need to do the same thing with God. Do you like to walk in the woods, fish in a stream, motorcycle down the back roads, work in the garden, or travel with a car club? Why not take God with you? He is not the killjoy that many make Him out to be. He is the joy giver, the gift giver. He loves to give to His children and spend time with them. So, when you are enjoying the things that you love, talk to Him. Thank Him for the moment. Tell Him how you feel. Tell Him what makes you scared. Share your heart with Him. Don't just visit Him once a week. Make it real. You will be surprised at how deep your relationship will grow.

A RAINY DAY

When Rose woke-up on Saturday morning, she was excited and just couldn't wait, she ran to the window and opened it wide, her joy left her as the rain the pouring down.

"What about our picnic?" she thought. She was ready to cry, but she got an idea and decided to make the best of it.

"Just maybe she could have the picnic tomorrow or some other day. Or maybe the rain will stop."

Then she had another idea. She messaged Peggy and Ruth, who had also planned to go on the picnic, she told them to come over to her house with their picnic baskets.

The girls messaged back, "But it is raining."

"Come anyway." Rose messaged back. The girls arrived with their picnic baskets. "We are going to have an inside picnic," laughed Rose. There was a tablecloth spread on the floor of the sunroom.

"We can pretend the chairs are trees and the potted plants are wild flowers," she laughed. When they had eaten the picnic lunch, Peggy and Ruth agreed that it was as much fun as a picnic out side.

ELGIN NEWS!

ELGIN WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

ELGIN DAY is being celebrated this year on Sunday August 13, 2023. This event began a number of years ago when the Elgin Eco Association wanted to thank the community for their support. A barbecue was held in the Park and ice cream was served at the WI Hall.

Since then the EEA has worked hard to create a great park in the middle of the community complete with green space, ice rink and playground. And, the barbecue continues to happen each August.

The event has grown at the WI Hall as well. This year the hall will be open at 1 pm to serve free ice cream sundaes and will feature three different stations for you to check out. We have titled this year's theme..."ANTIQUES RoadShow"!!!

In attendance will be our faithful and knowledgeable Eleanor and Bill Goggin. Eleanor is an historian of the Elgin area and continues to be eager to learn and preserve all she can in terms of people and history. Her husband, Bill, compliments her efforts creating and administering the Facebook page ELGIN YESTERYEAR. Bill and Eleanor will be on hand to chat with you about the history of Elgin and surrounding area. They would like for people to chat with them about stories, events, and people of the past. We know that this will be very interesting for all the newcomers to our area as they settle and want to learn about their new Elgin community.

This year will also feature antique expert Mr. Fred Knudson. Fred will have items on hand of interest and value. He is most eager to have you bring along your items of interest so you may gain some additional knowledge of your inherited and acquired treasures (family pictures, maps, heirlooms, family Bibles, etc.). Please plan to stop by to talk with Fred and ask questions. (Any item(s) that you bring must be in your possession at all times unless otherwise arranged.)

Also included for display at the Hall will be items from the "old" way of maple sugar making. Ted and Brenda Martin will be happy to show you items of interest, some still used today.

The EEA is happy to report the summer camp is going very well. There are many challenges due to the weather this summer. A river too deep and too fast. The Riverwalk had to be modified to swimming and a hike. We are greatfull that Erin and Jason were able to accomodate the summer camp by taking the children on a long hike to the falls on their property. Due to the high water we saw the falls in a very different light. A dangerous roaring waterfall. With a small vortex where many flip-flops, shoes and tennis balls formed the Pollet River Garbage Patch. If we want this river to remain pristine we need to make sure we must take care to clean up after ourselves.

The last day of camp the kids will cook a meal for their invited guests. It is a very proud moment for them to be able to do this. It is also a great challenge for the volunteers. Seeing the kids happy, smiling, playing with each other makes a persons heart sing.

Our summer student is working hard on building our mountain bike trails and making the trails ready for continued use and the annual mountain bike race. We also made a podcast about the gold buckle trail built by Jamie Mitton. Check out my podcast, Jamie's Gold Buckle Loop, on Spotify for Podcasters: <https://anchor.fm/moranda>

A new bridge is being built for the Mapleton trail. Because of the high water things are moving somewhat slowly. The trail is still a gem but you will need boots on your walk.

August is on our mind with Elgin Day coming up. We will have a BBQ and games. We hope you will come out to enjoy this event with neighbours and friends.

Hey! Did you know that the Elgin Seniors are keeping their Flea Market/Yard Sale open most of the summer? Recently on June 17, the Seniors Club opened their summer Flea Market. There are lots of items left to browse with more circulating through available for shopping each time the seniors hold an event at their Center (check out the Facebook page to stay informed on events). Shoppers can find antiques, shoes, clothing of every size, household items, books, and puzzles, etc. Also, we welcome donations to keep the Flea Market well-stocked through the summer. Call Donna Richards at 506-756- 3785 if you have items to donate.

Speaking of events, the next one is coming up very soon - ELGIN DAY! There will be lots of activities in several locations in Elgin but as mentioned, the Seniors will have the Center open for shopping. We are looking forward to supporting the activities for the kiddos with games and handing out treats. Everyone loves kids, so mom and dad and grandparents come by the Center and bring the children.

Membership recruitment is on-going. Call Donna for more information about joining and being active.

Goshen Baptist Church Celebrates 183rd Anniversary Service

E. deeded 2/3 of an acre at Goshen Corner for a burying ground and site for the Baptist Chapel for the sum of 75 pounds". After much sacrifice and hard labour, a chapel was built and dedicated

On Sunday, August 20, 2023, Goshen Baptist Church will celebrate their 183rd Anniversary Service. Goshen is presumably named after the biblical land of Goshen. (There is another Goshen in Kings County)

The first settler in Elgin was John Gildart in 1812. The first settler in Goshen was James Hayward in 1824. As time went on, other families with names of Demill, Jonah, Babcock/Babkirk, and Graves, etc. settled there. They coped with many difficulties such as clearing land, building homes, severe winters, crop failures and tragic deaths. It was an isolated time for some families with no neighbours close by and they missed the social interactions from their homelands. A chapel was an important aspect of the community.

In the 1830's there were enough settlements and interest by the settlers to have local meetings in a home or perhaps a school building. In 1835 Rev. Joseph Crandall, pastor at Salisbury, was instrumental in organizing the Elgin Baptist Church with the first building located in the middle of the Old Elgin Cemetery. In 1850 certain members began their own worship services in Goshen under the name of "2nd Elgin Church". In 1859 James Stevens and wife Mary in July, 1860. You can imagine the rejoicing and praise to their God!

The straight back pews and high pulpit is still in use today. The pulpit was built in 1893 by Rev. Henry H. Saunders. His salary was $500 per year. The pews were sold to members to satisfy the church debt and originally had doors of which one still exists. I remember my grandfather, Budd DeMille, always sitting in the same pew - I guess he "owned it." The church also had a library and BYPU meetings at one time and stables for the horses. The church has been updated through the years with new windows, roof, furnace, chimney, foundation and basement.

They had outdoor baptisms at the river near farms owned by Ed Tucker, Tal and Sherman DeMille. I read one account of a baptism held in November!

Many of our older country churches have fallen into disrepair or turned into a cottage or business but this little white church in the valley is still open for Annual Anniversary Services. We still use the pump organ! I suppose our younger generation haven't even seen one of those!

Please join us as we celebrate yet another year!

-Idella Steeves/Lazar

The Local News & Views would like to apologise for an error in last month's publication. On pages 13-15 we incorrectly referred to Salisbury Regional School by its former name, J.M.A. Armstrong High School. Congratulations again to all this year's graduates!

OBITUARIES

Carolyn Steeves
1950 - 2023

It is with heavy hearts that the family announces the unexpected passing of Carolyn Ruth Steeves, 73, on July 5, 2023 at her home in Elgin, NB.

She and her husband married on August 26th, 1972 and settled in Elgin to raise their family whom she thought dearly of.

Carolyn was born and raised in Stoney Creek, attended Moncton High School and entered into the nursing program at the St. John General graduating as an RN in 1971. She worked in the St. John, Sussex and Moncton hospitals, and retired in 2008.

She and her husband moved to and settled in Elgin to raise their family. She enjoyed the rural life and loved working outdoors and tenting/camping.

She faithfully attended the First Elgin Baptist Church where she played the organ and piano. She enjoyed directing the choir and conducting the Living Christmas Tree for a number of years. She had a real passion for Gospel and Country music, and loved to attend and take part in Country music events in many different places.

Carolyn's talents and hobbies were countless. She loved playing a number of musical instruments, singing, knitting, cross stitching, quilting, reading and being outside any chance she could. She was always busy at one project or another, perhaps even several at a time. She displayed more energy than should rightfully be given to any one individual. Her love for her family was woven into every task she did, from knit socks, to cozy quilts, and even spontaneous deliveries of baked goods. However, she would wish that her most important legacy that she would leave for her loved ones would be her love for her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Carolyn is survived and dearly missed by her loving husband of 50 years, Donald Steeves; Her sons, Matthew Steeves (Sarah Scribner) of Elgin, Shane Steeves (Cassey Jones) of Moncton, Luke Steeves (Sherry Goggin) of Elgin and Adam Steeves (Ela Encinares) of Montreal; Her Grandchildren, Connor, Cody, Austin, Tiffany, Ethan, Makayla, Sophie, Ariana, Mayumi and Enola Reven; Brothers and Sisters, Russell Parker, Paul Parker (Barb), Timothy Parker (Jennifer) and Judi Parker. Carolyn was predeceased by her father Francis Parker, mother Audrey Parker Ayer, sister-in-law Brenda and sister-in-law Nancy.

Visitation was at the Salisbury Funeral Home, July 9th, from 6pm-8pm. A service to celebrate Carolyn's life was held at First Elgin Baptist Church on Monday, July 10th at 1pm. Interment in New Elgin Cemetery. Arrangements are in the care of Salisbury Funeral Home (506-372-4800).

If desired, donations in memory of Carolyn to the Heart and Stroke Foundation would be appreciated by the family.

Online condolences can be made at www.keirsteads.ca

Gertrude was born at her grandparents' home in Doaktown, N.B. on March 1, 1932 to Rev. Gordon and Etta (Rutledge) Beckett of Sunny Brae, N.B., where they lived until 1939. After a few years in Fawcett Hill, N.B., the family moved to Havelock, N.B., where Gertrude graduated from the Havelock Superior School in 1948.

She dearly wanted to become a nurse, but since she had graduated early, she was not old enough. So she went to Robinson's Business College and worked as a secretary for C. N. Express in Moncton, N.B. until 1953, at which time she was finally able to enter nursing training at the Royal Victoria Hospital in Montreal, Q.C. She graduated with her R.N. in 1956 and worked her way up quickly to Surgical Head Nurse.

Gertrude and a nursing friend then went on a six-month dream trip to Europe. An unfortunate automobile accident that almost killed her parents brought her suddenly back to Berry Mills, N.B. in 1959, where she nursed them while working at the Moncton Hospital.

On November 12, 1960, Gertrude married Robert Templeton of Havelock,

NB, where she lived for the remainder of her life. They had two children: Joan in 1962 and Kenneth in 1963. She continued to work off-and-on at the Moncton Hospital over the years, while also working part time at the Havelock School.

Gertrude was very active in the Havelock Baptist Church, holding various offices from Sunday School teacher to music director. But her greatest joy was to worship God through playing the piano. Numerous couples in the region can claim to have had Gertrude play for their wedding!

Other interests included the Women's Missionary Society and the Women's Institute - Gertrude held lifetime memberships in both of these wonderful organizations. She was also an excellent producer of jams, jellies, and pickles from her large garden.

She is survived by her daughter Joan and grandson, Duncan, of Langley, BC, as well as her siblings Stanley Beckett (Kay) of Whitehorse, YK; Humbert Beckett (Audrey) of Nackawic, NB; and Pauline Waldman (late Dave) of Toronto, ON, nieces and nephews.

COUNSELLING CONTINUES IN SALISBURY AND PETITCODIAC

Summer is here and school is out, but counselling services continue to be offered in the communities of Salisbury and Petitcodiac.

Check out the answers to these common questions to learn more about this valuable service:

Do I need a referral to go to counselling?

No, you don't need a referral to book a counselling session. You can call either the Salisbury Primary Health Care Office at 506-372-3319 or the Petitcodiac Health Centre at 506-756-3400 to book an appointment in either location.

When is the counsellor available in Salisbury and Petitcodiac?

The counsellor is in Salisbury on Wednesday and Thursday at 64 Douglas Street and in Petitcodiac on Monday, Tuesday, and Friday at the Health Centre.

What can I expect when I arrive for my session?

In Salisbury, you can just go to the door and the counsellor will greet you (knock if she isn't right there); and in Petitcodiac, you will check in with reception. You can expect the session to last about an hour.

Is there a fee for this service?

No, this is a free service.

What does a counsellor help with?

Answer: The counsellor can help you with any sort of mental health concern like anxiety, depression, self-esteem, anger, loneliness, or relationship issues. You talk about what you want to talk about in a safe and comfortable atmosphere where you won't be judged.

Can I see the counsellor more than once?

Absolutely. Each session stands on its own, but you're welcome to call and book another appointment anytime.

Who can go see the counsellor?

Anyone; however, if you are under 16 years of age you will need to be accompanied by a parent or guardian.
